Seducing Spirits: Homosexualizing America

By Timothy Avants

Prologue

You can never, ever have my children.

Introduction

There is an insidious force that is trying to overthrow the American family, the American value system, and America itself, and it comes in the form of a friend. It seduces in the name of authority and the name of compassion. But, the result is death, both physical and spiritual.

The same people to whom we have entrusted our children are trying to pervert them, to seduce them in the dark, and turn them over to a life of debauchery and sin, to lead them to and push them past a point of no return and these are our enemies, the enemies of our nation, our families, and our children.

Not long ago, an after school program sponsored by a public school handed out tracts with graphic images and step by step instructions on how to have anal sex. Our tax dollars paid for it. What would you say if the local public school gave instructions to your 15 year old daughter on how to give oral sex? The instructions were handed out to the same age school kids, and it was done in the name of "diversity" and "equality."

California has fought the epic battle against evil and remains embroiled in it at this very minute June 6, 2012. The idiot legislators voted for gay marriage and passed it through. The public became enraged and held a popular vote, overturning gay marriage, which is called a referendum. When polled, most people cited their reasons for voting against the gay marriage bill and thereby overturning it as this: they felt that gay marriage would sooner or later be taught as "normal" to their children. They said that it would creep into the school curriculum. A homosexual pair appealed and a homosexual judge overturned the popular vote. Yes, let me repeat that- a homosexual judge ruled that the popular vote against homosexual marriage was illegal. Sorry, but one more time just to be clear: one man who admits that he is homosexual ruled that all the people of California were wrong in voting that they did not want homosexual marriage in the state of California.

There it is. Immediately after that, the Governor of California issued an edict that homosexual curriculum would be added to the California elementary school text books. California's voters worst fears became reality. California, you should find a way to eject that weak, back-stabbing governor from office.

Massachusetts allocated $100,000 from Medicaid and earmarked it for homosexual programs in the public school. Now they have taken from the most basic service-healthcare of the poor and elderly to pay to pervert the children. Perhaps I was a little too mild when I said an “insidious” force was at work. These people have become so brazen that they spit in the face of even the most basic legal procedures, and the goal is simple-change America.

Many people, the main ones to whom I write now-have convinced themselves that in the name of decency, America should recognize this behavior, condone it, even support it, and treat it as if their daughter brought home the boy next door or as if their son brought home the girl next door. This is exactly the deception that has been portrayed on these individuals who hang in the balance. Their kids’ lives hang in the balance. They in fact may be the deciding factors in whether or not their children spend eternity in heaven or hell.

Is it wrong? Is it normal? What does God think about that? Where can I find these answers? Why should I even care?

Let’s take a look if it is normal or not. Let’s see what God has to say about it. Let’s see what is happening right now around the country and how that affects you and your children. Don’t be deceived. Countries have fallen because of their perversions, and God has a specific answer to this type of behavior. One of the worst deceptions in the world is including God in this type of lifestyle. Now we see homosexual churches, the assignment of homosexual bishops in the church, and the Obama administration is pushing homosexual marriage in the military.

Here we will look at the questions posed above and even more, including how to deal with a child who says he is homosexual, the causes of homosexuality, how any position affects your family, how to view leaders who support homosexuality, and the forces at work in the homosexual.

Let’s prepare ourselves.

Part 1

Causes of Homosexuality

Part 2

Enemies of the Cross

Part 3

Actual Cases of Demon Influence, Oppression, and Possession

Part 4

Freedom from Deception

Part 5

How Demons Enter

Part 6

Types of Demons

Part 1

Causes of Homosexuality

Perhaps the most common so called justification for homosexuality is the claim "I was born this way." Of course, there is no research to support the homosexual gene claim. Yes, acknowledged, people are born into corruption and therefore born into sinful acts like stealing, adultery, lies, malice, envy and the like, of which for a certain number of people, they do devolve into the act of homosexuality. Yet, simply because they follow their whims does not mean that they were born that way. That is false logic known as post hoc ergo propter hoc: "after this, therefore, because of this."

According to a Gallup poll conducted in may 2011, 92% of Americans believe in God (1). That said, we will definitely start there. Again, is sexuality normal and what does the Bible say about it? If you believe in God, especially if you call yourself a Christian, this is the most important book you will ever read regarding homosexuality. If there is sickness in your house, if there is rebellion from your children, if your spouse has been cheating, there is an answer to all of it, and homosexuality is a symptom rather than the cause. We will link it here in this book and get to the root of it.

First, a short prayer to get us going.

Pray this with me and let's include God in the mix so that our time spent in this book will be the most beneficial in every respect and for all involved.

Dear Heavenly Father, in the name of Jesus, we pray that You speak to us through this message in the book. We pray that You open our eyes and touch every individual who reads this, we pray and agree that Your will be done in us and our family members that we pray for now regarding this topic and that You have your perfect plan fulfilled in their lives and ours.

We thank you in the name of Jesus and call it done.

Amen.

Causes of homosexuality

In the book of Romans in the Bible, the first chapter gives us one cause of homosexuality. I will make comments at the end of the paragraphs.

God Turns People Over

[16] For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile. [17] For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed —a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: “The righteous will live by faith.”

This tells us that we must live according to what the Bible says-by faith. Faith is the Word of God, simply put. If we have faith, we have the Word of God, which is Jesus, living in us. Therefore, to live by faith is to live by the Word of God. And the gospel is the Bible and the precepts written therein.

[18] The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of people, who suppress the truth by their wickedness, [19] since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. [20] For since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.

People have no excuse to deny God. Denying God is a dangerous thing. In fact, I know a man who gave his heart to Jesus and was healed on his deathbed. Being the idiot that he was and still is to this day, he later renounced the healing, saying it was the product of his own positive thinking. He not only lost his healing but became impotent, as well. He still curses God and says anyone believing in God is a fool. The Bible itself says that the man who says in his heart that there is no God is a fool (Ps. 14:1). One will still pay for this type of thinking and that relates directly to homosexuality.

[21] For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened. [22] Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools [23] and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like a mortal human being and birds and animals and reptiles.

This means a couple of things. First, they knew there was a God but people never glorified Him. Imagine the man who was healed and then had the audacity to not only be thankless but later to renounce God’s existence. Then, his foolish heart was darkened to the point to where now he cannot even hold on a regular conversation. His wife hates him, and he hates his wife. He cannot have sex at all. Everyone around him hates him. He is like a poisonous spring constantly spewing out corrosive comments. Second, people like him tend to erect idols of some sort. Obviously, the Hebrews did just such a thing. They were delivered from Egypt and were fed by manna dropped from the sky. They complained after a while and began to say that God was nothing and He simply brought them into the desert to die. They contended it would have been better to stay and serve the Egyptians who raped their women, beat them, murdered them, and were the cruelest of slave owners. What an insult to God. Next, they made idols with their own hands and bowed down to a lifeless image and worshiped it. Again, what an insult to God Almighty whom had already delivered them and made them rich on their way out of bondage. But people do the same exact thing now, and homosexuality is a form of idol worship, whereby people worship the created more than the Creator.

[24] "Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another. [25] They exchanged the truth about God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is forever praised. Amen.

[26] Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones. [27] In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error" (Romans 1:24-27).

The result was homosexuality. For one to bow down and worship idols is a by-product of not giving the Lord His due honor. Now, let's analyze God's stance on the subject for just a minute. The result of disobedience and dishonor was to be given over by God to shameful lusts. They became like animals and practiced homosexuality. Even the women did the same. Bluntly put, when God took His hand off of them, not only took His hand off of them but actually physically gave them over, they became so depraved that they defied the laws of nature. This was a "penalty." Consequently, homosexuals die much younger, are extremely sick most often, and very unhappy. This is the reason for the high suicide rate. No one can take away their shame. No laws. No matter what. And this is why the boy at Rutgers killed himself after he learned his roommates watched his perverted sex with a man he had brought home from a bar. Shame. Nothing can take that away but the blood of Jesus. There is hope. And their motto it gets better simply means that their conscience becomes seared to wrongdoing-because they were given over by God out of His disgust with them. Afterward, we will discount the theory that people are born that way. There is a demonic spirit called a familiar spirit that comes to children at a young age. Usually it was invited by a member of the family at some point. It can come even one generation before through heterosexual adultery. At any rate, it comes through consent. More on that later and we will look at actual, documented cases.

At this point, one can see very clearly God's view on homosexuality. It is the most depraved of sins that one can do with his own body. It is tantamount to idolatry-the bowing down and worshiping of other gods (note the little "g.").

In fact, the first two commandments of the Ten Commandments have to do with other gods.

1. "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. You shall have no other gods before Me.

2. "You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My Commandments."

[28] Furthermore, just as they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, so God gave them over to a depraved mind, so that they do what ought not to be done. [29] They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, [30] slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents; [31] they have no understanding, no fidelity, no love, no mercy. [32] Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practice them.

See, Proverbs 4:7 tells us that the main thing in life is to get wisdom. Wisdom is the fear of the Lord (Job 28:28). Of course, that includes honor, obedience, reverence, and awe. Remember, Proverbs was written by Solomon, the wisest man that had ever lived to that point and would ever live thereafter. Even Solomon had his throne stripped – 10 of the 12 tribes- from him because he had allowed one of his wives to set up idols in the kingdom. Because of his lust, he disobeyed God and paid the price. The problems in Israel today with the Palestinians are a direct result of that. After one gets the wisdom, or adheres to the omnipotence of God, then naturally he will follow God's commandments. That is called "understanding" (Prov. 4:7).

"Behold, the fear of the Lord is wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding" (Job 28:28).

Parents, are you dealing with a child who says s/he is gay? Or, is he effeminate? Don't give in to that. You have to fight that. Does it mean that s/he (s/he = she or he) is turned over? No, not yet. But, it could. It certainly means that satan is at work. There is a sinister force at work these days and they have taken over many teachers and administrators at school that condone and even promote these things. Many are closet homosexuals themselves. Perverts. They want a shot at your child. The very ones that we have entrusted our children to are trying to pervert our them and lead them into lewd activities. Not only that, but it invites demonic presence into your home which causes diseases and insanity and countless other problems. It is a one way ticket to hell. We will look at scriptures that back up all of this. Read on. Your child's life and very soul may depend on it.

Homosexuals' Claims and Refutations

Before we continue, let's establish the sinfulness of homosexuality by refuting or casting down the logic that homosexuals use to support their behavior and lure other young people into it.

1. They claim: The Bible says nothing about homosexuality:

Answer (Refutation): Leviticus 18:22 (Note the many translations to refute the claim that the translators got it wrong)

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
"'Do not lie with a man as one lies with a woman; that is detestable.

New Living Translation (©2007)
"Do not practice homosexuality, having sex with another man as with a woman. It is a detestable sin.

English Standard Version (©2001)
You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
'You shall not lie with a male as one lies with a female; it is an abomination.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Never have sexual intercourse with a man as with a woman. It is disgusting.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
You shall not lie with a man, as with a woman: it is abomination.

American King James Version
You shall not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

American Standard Version
Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

Douay-Rheims Bible
Thou shalt not lie with mankind as with womankind, because it is an abomination.

Darby Bible Translation
And thou shalt not lie with mankind as one lieth with a woman: it is an abomination.

English Revised Version
Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

Webster's Bible Translation
Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

World English Bible

"'You shall not lie with a man, as with a woman. That is detestable.

Young's Literal Translation
And with a male thou dost not lie as one lieth with a woman; abomination it is.

2. They claim: Those verses do not count because it is the Old Testament, and Jesus destroyed the old law.

Answer (Refutation):

Jesus destroyed the old law and how we approach God. We no longer offer the sacrifice of the blood of bulls to cover our sins. Jesus' blood actually took away our sins completely. Sin is still sin, and the wages of sin is death. God did not annul the Ten Commandments, and they were given in the Old Testament.

3. They claim: God saved everyone by sending Jesus, and we are all going to heaven.

Answer (Refutation): (Note the many translations so that one cannot claim the translators got it wrong)

<< 1 Corinthians 6:9 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders

New Living Translation (©2007)
Don't you realize that those who do wrong will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, or who worship idols, or commit adultery, or are male prostitutes, or practice homosexuality,

English Standard Version (©2001)
Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality,

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals,

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

International Standard Version (©2008)
You know that wicked people will not inherit the kingdom of God, don't you? Stop deceiving yourselves! Sexually immoral people, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, homosexuals,

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
Or do you not know that evil men do not inherit The Kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; no fornicators, neither worshipers of idols, neither adulterers, neither sexual molesters, neither males lying down with males,

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Don't you know that wicked people won't inherit the kingdom of God? Stop deceiving yourselves! People who continue to commit sexual sins, who worship false gods, those who commit adultery, homosexuals,

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
Know you not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

American King James Version
Know you not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

American Standard Version
Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men,

Douay-Rheims Bible
Know you not that the unjust shall not possess the kingdom of God? Do not err: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers,

Darby Bible Translation
Do ye not know that unrighteous persons shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not err:

neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor those who make women of themselves, nor who abuse themselves with men,

English Revised Version
Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men,

Webster's Bible Translation
Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

Weymouth New Testament
Do you not know that unrighteous men will not inherit God's Kingdom? Cherish no delusion here. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor any who are guilty of unnatural crime,

World English Bible
Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals,

Young's Literal Translation
have ye not known that the unrighteous the reign of God shall not inherit? be not led astray; neither whoremongers, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor sodomites,

If you look closely, you will notice that almost all of these translations say that homosexuality is an abuse of oneself with mankind. Why? Simply put, one abuses himself with this type of behavior.

The Bible says that all sin except sexual immorality is outside the body. But, sexual immorality of any kind means one sins against himself. That would be worse than taking drugs. Again, let's look at many translations lest we be accused of getting it wrong:

<< 1 Corinthians 6:18 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body.

New Living Translation (©2007)
Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body.

English Standard Version (©2001)
Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
Flee immorality. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his own body.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

International Standard Version (©2008)
Keep on running away from sexual immorality. Any other sin that a person commits is outside his body, but the person who sins sexually sins against his own body.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
Flee from fornication. Every sin that a man will do is apart from his body, but whoever fornicates sins with his body.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Stay away from sexual sins. Other sins that people commit don't affect their bodies the same way sexual sins do. People who sin sexually sin against their own bodies.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
Flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is outside the body; but he that commits fornication sins against his own body.

American King James Version
Flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is without the body; but he that commits fornication sins against his own body.

American Standard Version
Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

Douay-Rheims Bible
Fly fornication. Every sin that a man doth, is without the body; but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

Darby Bible Translation
Flee fornication. Every sin which a man may practice is without the body, but he that commits fornication sins against his own body.

Webster's Bible Translation
Flee lewdness. Every sin that a man doeth, is without the body; but he that committeth lewdness, sinneth against his own body.

Weymouth New Testament
Flee from fornication. Any other sin that a human being commits lies outside the body; but he who commits fornication sins against his own body.

World English Bible
Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

Young's Literal Translation
flee the whoredom; every sin -- whatever a man may commit -- is without the body, and he who is committing whoredom, against his own body doth sin.

THE BIGGEST HOMOSEXUAL ARGUMENT OF ALL

4. They claim: "I was born this way."

Answer: (Refutation) A person is not born homosexual but born into a sinful world, rather. Therefore, the influences start immediately. That is the key. A killer could say the same exact thing. Everyone has at some time or another the impulse to kill, but we can never follow that impulse unless it is in self defense or defense of others.

<< Psalm 51:5 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.

New Living Translation (©2007)
For I was born a sinner--yes, from the moment my mother conceived me.

English Standard Version (©2001)

Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, And in sin my mother conceived me.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
Because in evil I was formed in the womb and in sin my mother conceived me.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Indeed, I was born guilty. I was a sinner when my mother conceived me.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

American King James Version
Behold, I was shaped in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

American Standard Version
Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity; And in sin did my mother conceive me.

Douay-Rheims Bible
For behold I was conceived in iniquities; and in sins did my mother conceive me.

Darby Bible Translation
Behold, in iniquity was I brought forth, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

English Revised Version
Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Webster's Bible Translation
Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

World English Bible
Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity. In sin my mother conceived me.

Young's Literal Translation
Lo, in iniquity I have been brought forth, And in sin doth my mother conceive me.

We see that again:

<< Romans 5:12 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned--

New Living Translation (©2007)
When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned.

English Standard Version (©2001)
Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all sinned—

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned--

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

International Standard Version (©2008)
Just as sin entered the world through one man, and death resulted from sin, therefore everyone dies, because everyone has sinned.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
For just as by the agency of one-man, sin entered the universe, and by means of sin, death, in this way death passed by this sin unto all the children of men, because all of them have sinned.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Sin came into the world through one person, and death came through sin. So death spread to everyone, because everyone sinned.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

American King James Version
Why, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed on all men, for that all have sinned:

American Standard Version
Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:--

Douay-Rheims Bible
Wherefore as by one man sin entered into this world, and by sin death; and so death passed upon all men, in whom all have sinned.

Darby Bible Translation
For this cause, even as by one man sin entered into the world, and by sin death; and thus death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

English Revised Version
Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:--

Webster's Bible Translation
Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.

Weymouth New Testament
What follows? This comparison. Through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin death, and so death passed to all mankind in turn, in that all sinned.

World English Bible
Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned.

Young's Literal Translation
because of this, even as through one man the sin did enter into the world, and through the sin the death; and thus to all men the death did pass through, for that all did sin;

See these supporting scriptures too:

Romans 8:3 For what the law was powerless to do in that it was **...

For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man …

Romans 7:5 For when we were controlled by the sinful nature, the **...

For when we were controlled by the sinful nature, the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our bodies, so that we bore fruit for death. **...

Galatians 5:17 For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to **...

For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the sinful nature. They are in **...

Ephesians 2:3 All of us also lived among them at one time **...

All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our sinful nature and following its desires and thoughts. **...

Galatians 6:8 The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from **...

The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal **...

Romans 8:5 Those who live according to the sinful nature have **...

Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what that nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their **...

Colossians 2:11 In him you were also circumcised, in the putting **...

In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature, not with a circumcision done by the hands of men but with the circumcision done by **...

Romans 8:9 You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature ...

You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. ... But you are not controlled by your sinful nature. **...

Romans 8:13 For if you live according to the sinful nature, you **...

For if you live according to the sinful nature, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live, **...

Galatians 5:16 So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not **...

So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature. ... Then you won't be doing what your sinful nature craves. **...

Galatians 5:24 Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the **...

Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires. **...

Romans 8:8 Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God **...

Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God. ... That's why those who are still under the control of their sinful nature can never please God. **...

1 Corinthians 5:5 hand this man over to Satan, so that the sinful ...

Hand this man over to Satan, so that the sinful nature may be destroyed and his spirit saved on the day of the Lord. **...

Colossians 2:13 When you were dead in your sins and in the **...

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all **...

Galatians 5:19 The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual **...

The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; **...

The only answer is Jesus because only He can take away the impulse. The same is true with anything else-even a heterosexual who is addicted to women. But, again, let's be very clear-to those who are turned over by God to this debased mind, that is probably final. He already turned them over. Nothing you or I will do will turn them around. However, I would never dare presume to say that God in his infinite mercy would not once again provide an escape or a hand to lift them out of that pit. But, it is clear that once they have become Christian and then turned again to the point of being given over, there is no repentance after that. In fact, these people in the Christian church whom have ordained homosexuals are these that God will condemn the most harshly. The one true saving grace is this: we do not know exactly when a person is turned over by God. But, the chances are, if a person says he is a Christian (especially if s/he has been filled with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues) and shows no remorse for supporting homosexuality or giving his body-the Lord's temple- to homosexuality-s/he is definitely given over and beyond repentance. His or her conscience has been seared to the point of not feeling condemnation for sinning against God and himself (I Timothy 4:2). He is the true blasphemer.

These people are your enemies and your child's enemies, and never should you dare leave your child alone with them nor anyone like them, no principal, no teacher, no friend, no daycare worker, no one at all. The key phrase here that exposes them is this: "acceptance/diversity."

Let's see how the Bible defines these hypocrites and what will happen to them as a result of defiling our children and their posts in the name of "acceptance:"

<< Hebrews 6:6 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace.

New Living Translation (©2007)
and who then turn away from God. It is impossible to bring such people back to repentance; by rejecting the Son of God, they themselves are nailing him to the cross once again and holding him up to public shame.

English Standard Version (©2001)
and then have fallen away, to restore them again to repentance, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
and then have fallen away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and put Him to open shame.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

International Standard Version (©2008)
and who have fallen away, as long as they continue to crucify the Son of God to their own detriment by exposing him to public ridicule.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
Who would sin again and again crucify The Son of God, and become contemptible, cannot be renewed to conversion.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Yet, they have deserted [Christ]. They are crucifying the Son of God again and publicly disgracing him. Therefore, they cannot be led a second time to God.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

American King James Version
If they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

American Standard Version
and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

Douay-Rheims Bible
And are fallen away: to be renewed again to penance, crucifying again to themselves the Son of God, and making him a mockery.

Darby Bible Translation
and have fallen away, crucifying for themselves as they do the Son of God, and making a show of him.

English Revised Version
and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

Webster's Bible Translation
If they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

Weymouth New Testament
it is impossible, I say, to keep bringing them back to a new repentance, for, to their own undoing, they are repeatedly crucifying the Son of God afresh and exposing Him to open shame.

World English Bible

and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame.

Young's Literal Translation

and having fallen away, again to renew them to reformation, having crucified again to themselves the Son of God, and exposed to public shame.

Other claims are floating out there that are designed to deceive the youngsters into engaging in homosexuality. These are kids that are still wrestling with hitting puberty and their hormones are raging. Of course, at that age and especially here in America where we still believe in God, they will have doubts. They have an innate sense of right and wrong though that pricks their heart when they are tempted by this kind of behavior. Here is the automatic stop gap that God instilled in them. But, homosexual activists try to convince them it is ok.

Make no mistake, once those kids are gone, they may never come back. They could be condemned to hell-their problems will have only just begun. As parents, as friends, as pastors, as teachers, as anyone at all who cares for whomever professes or is even dealing any area of homosexuality, including voyeurism (female to female is highly prevalent among most males), do not give any sort of approval to it. Know that it is demonic and there is a type of spirit that tempts in this regard. Let's look at how to deal with it first now that we have established that homosexuality is wrong. Then, we will look at actual cases of demonic influence and you can decide the validity for yourself.

To the Parent,

Above all, know this: if you are a parent, that child's soul will be on your hands. You will be held directly responsible for your child's condemnation to hell if you do not intercede to stop that homosexuality. Further, if you agree to, assist, or even allow one's lover to sit at your table, you are guilty of the same crime and will be held accountable. We will dissect this further and support these contentions in every aspect.

SELF PROFESSED CHRISTIANS WHO SUPPORT HOMOSEXUALITY ARE BLASPHEMERS

Christians, this is the most important part of this book for you. First, let's define blasphemy. Although the subject gets very complicated if you dwell on it, it is extremely simple if you take the Bible literally.

Blasphemy- blasphémia: slander
Original Word: βλασφημία, ας, ἡ
Part of Speech: Noun, Feminine
Transliteration: blasphémia

Phonetic Spelling: (blas-fay-me'-ah)
Short Definition: abusive or scurrilous language, blasphemy
Definition: abusive or scurrilous language, blasphemy.

Definition: abusive or scurrilous language, blasphemy.

Traditionally, unforgiven blasphemy defined within the church has been considered speaking badly against the Holy Spirit. That comes in the form of attributing the works of the Holy Spirit to satan (Matthew 12:32; Mark 3:29; Luke 12:10).

The Pharisees accused Jesus of casting out demons by using the power of satan. That is blaspheme because it attributes evil to the excellent, pure, and holy work of the Holy Spirit. is the work of the Holy Spirit Himself. This is the unpardonable sin because it is against the Holy Spirit, Who is also the convicting Spirit that brings us to the cross. Without the conviction of the Holy Spirit, we could never be aware of our sinful state; therefore, we could have no occasion to come to accept Jesus by and through Whom is the only way to receive salvation. Only through the blood of Jesus can we approach God the Father. This approach comes only through the pure conviction and wooing of the Holy Spirit.

That said, any Christian who has tasted the heavenly gift of salvation and then attributes homosexuality to the purity of the Holy Spirit is also guilty of blasphemy. He speaks evil of the Holy Spirit by equating the unmistakable holiness with the depravity of homosexuality, which we have already established is a result of being “given over” by God to a “depraved mind” (Romans ch. 1 See above). Further, kindly recall that God gives these people over because they refuse to give God honor as God, who above all is pure holiness.

That said as well, if God gives them over to homosexuality as a penalty of wrongdoing, how then can they claim to be Christians and partakers of the same spirit of God? It is impossible. That leads to the second aspect of blasphemy. That is to call that which is unholy an act of the Holy Spirit.

We share the same Spirit of God that rose Jesus from the dead. He has nothing to do with sin.

<< Romans 8:11 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you.

New Living Translation (©2007)
The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, lives in you. And just as God raised Christ Jesus from the dead, he will give life to your mortal bodies by this same Spirit living within you.

English Standard Version (©2001)
If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

International Standard Version (©2008)
And if the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then the one who raised the Messiah from the dead will also make your mortal bodies alive by his Spirit who lives in you.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
And if The Spirit of him who raised our Lord Yeshua The Messiah from among the dead dwells within you, he who raised Yeshua The Messiah from among the dead also will give life to your dying bodies, because of his Spirit who dwells within you.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Does the Spirit of the one who brought Jesus back to life live in you? Then the one who brought Christ back to life will also make your mortal bodies alive by his Spirit who lives in you.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also bring to life your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwells in you.

American King James Version
But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwells in you.

American Standard Version
But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Douay-Rheims Bible
And if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you; he that raised up Jesus Christ from the dead, shall quicken also your mortal bodies, because of his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Darby Bible Translation
But if the Spirit of him that has raised up Jesus from among the dead dwell in you, he that has raised up Christ from among the dead shall quicken your mortal bodies also on account of his Spirit which dwells in you.

English Revised Version
But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also your mortal bodies through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Webster's Bible Translation
But if the Spirit of him that raised Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised Christ from the dead will also revive your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

Weymouth New Testament
And if the Spirit of Him who raised up Jesus from the dead is dwelling in you, He who raised up Christ from the dead will give Life also to your mortal bodies because of His Spirit who dwells in you.

World English Bible
But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.

Young's Literal Translation
and if the Spirit of Him who did raise up Jesus out of the dead doth dwell in you, He who did raise up the Christ out of the dead shall quicken also your dying bodies, through His Spirit dwelling in you.

God will not have anything at all to do with sin except to remove it or condemn it. He did not create sin nor will He commune with it. Therefore, to claim that God approves of and makes people homosexual is for the confessed Christian applying sin to the Holy Spirit, which is the exact same thing the Pharisees did, hence they were guilty of blasphemy. One further distinction is also clear. By the Word of God we call homosexuality a sin. Therefore, for a self professed Christian to accuse us of bigotry and hate mongering is also blasphemy against us as well as against the Holy Spirit. It is unforgivable, and they are traitors. Quislings.

We ourselves as true Christians must follow what the Word of the Lord says. By doing so, we are keeping His Word-His Law. Therefore for us to be accused and thereby clothed with what our accusers call wrong-doing, our accusers blaspheme the very Holy Spirit by Whom we are convinced and directed to understand that homosexuality is wrong. The rejection of forgiveness of this blasphemy is limited to backslidden Christians whom have tasted the light of the Holy Spirit but have turned away. Why to them? Because, they know. Anyone who declares otherwise posits a pathetic attempt at establishing his own righteousness.

<< 1 John 1:5 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all.

New Living Translation (©2007)
This is the message we heard from Jesus and now declare to you: God is light, and there is no darkness in him at all.

English Standard Version (©2001)
This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
This is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

International Standard Version (©2008)
This is the message that we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light, and in him there is no darkness-none at all!

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
And this is The Good News that we have heard from him and we evangelize to you: God is Light, and there is no darkness at all in him.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
This is the message we heard from Christ and are reporting to you: God is light, and there isn't any darkness in him.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

American King James Version
This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

American Standard Version
And this is the message which we have heard from him and announce unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

Douay-Rheims Bible
And this is the declaration which we have heard from him, and declare unto you: That God is light, and in him there is no darkness.

Darby Bible Translation
And this is the message which we have heard from him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

English Revised Version
And this is the message which we have heard from him, and announce unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

Webster's Bible Translation
This then is the message which we have heard from him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

Weymouth New Testament
This is the Message which we have heard from the Lord Jesus and now deliver to you--God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness.

World English Bible
This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

Young's Literal Translation
And this is the message that we have heard from Him, and announce to you, that God is light, and darkness in Him is not at all.

God did not change anything except for our approach to Him through the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. God never changes. His holiness never changes. Does He accept a sin now that He has never accepted before? By annulling the old law, however, He changed our method of coming to Him, which is no longer through an earthly priest. Sin is still sin. God never changes. He does have mercy, and only mercy countermands judgment. This is why Jesus was sent-so we can have direct access to God through the blood of Jesus Who is the eternal sacrifice; No more sacrifices are ever made to atone for our sins.

<< Hebrews 13:8 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

New Living Translation (©2007)
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

English Standard Version (©2001)
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

International Standard Version (©2008)
Jesus, the Messiah, is the same yesterday and today-and forever!

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
Yeshua The Messiah; He is yesterday, today and forever.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

American King James Version
Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

American Standard Version
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and to-day, yea and forever.

Douay-Rheims Bible
Jesus Christ, yesterday, and today; and the same forever.

Darby Bible Translation
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and to-day, and to the ages to come.

English Revised Version
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever.

Webster's Bible Translation
Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever.

Weymouth New Testament
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and to-day--yes, and to the ages to come.

World English Bible
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Young's Literal Translation
Jesus Christ yesterday and to-day the same, and to the ages;

5. They claim: Don't judge!"

Answer (Refutation): The Bible says not to judge a brother on trivial matters that have been annulled under the new covenant (such as meats and customs -feasts/days to observe etc...).

These are the references that say "don't judge."

1. I Cor 8: 7-13 re: idols
2. I Cor 10: 18-31 re: idols
3. Romans 14: 2-23 re: meats

This phrase "don't judge" is used specifically by hard core activists and other pro-homosexualists to stave off any sort of comment at all about their lifestyle, which includes 'fisting,' orgies, promiscuity, threesomes, and pedophilia. Incidentally, just so that you know how perverted England has become, the age of consent now in England is 16 years old. It is a crime for people to speak out against homosexuality, and doing so may end up in jail time. They in effect have now legalized pedophilia, and many men do seek out sex with these children. We are called to judge and hold our elected and appointed officials accountable. However, the phrase "don't judge" is used entirely out of context by these homosexuals to justify sinful behavior. The history of why Paul writes Corinthians underscores our argument here. After Jesus had been crucified and risen and ascended into heaven, a certain group of new Christians called Judaizers emerged. They taught a heresy to other new converts that the old Jewish law must be followed to obtain salvation. Of course, Jesus destroyed the old law by actually fulfilling it by being sinless. The old Jewish law or Judaism included observing certain customs and feasts. One such custom was to abstain from eating certain meats such as pork. Paul the author of Romans writes to the Christians in Rome telling them not to judge a weak brother if he still chooses to observe certain holidays and chooses to refrain from eating meats forbidden by the Jewish religion before the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus the Christ.

In verse 4, Paul says "Why do you judge another man's servant? To his own master he stands or falls," meaning that if one observes the day to be reverent to God, then another man cannot judge him on this because it is done in service to the Lord. Yet, this is the distinction: the observation of a holiday or a custom is NOT to engage in sin. Therefore, we are to say what God said: homosexuals, perverts, and sodomites will not inherit the kingdom of God (I Corinthians 6:9; Ephesians 5:5;).

Moreover, we see that the admonition "do not judge" does not pertain to sin like homosexuality, but it does pertain to the judging of neutral acts like eating certain kinds of meats and observing certain holidays. Sin is not even in the equation. Again, anyone that claims differently is perverting the Word of God and is a blasphemer. The finality is weighted in this:

1 Corinthians 10:31

King James Version (KJV)

[31] Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

Now, I hate to be crude, especially to the parents, but stop and think about this: Can you really turn your 15 year old son over to school officials who hand out tracts with graphic illustrations to the kids on how to get screwed in the anus? Can you do that unto the Lord? Can you see the perversity in that?

Would you give your child hard liquor? …drugs? … speed? …downers? How much worse is giving them over to demons? Mark my words, anyone who raises a child to be able to choose his or her own sex, yes, I said sex and not gender, is spitting in the face of God, and the children should be taken away from those parents. They are the lowest, vilest people on earth. They have consigned themselves and their children to a life of pure misery. Sooner or later, they will feel the brunt of that most intimate betrayal of their own children, their own flesh and blood. That is worse than molesting a child because it is forever. Again, is it a decision you can make unto God, according to scripture?

Again, Paul says the same thing:

<< Colossians 3:17 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

New Living Translation (©2007)
And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father.

English Standard Version (©2001)
And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

4. Colossians 2: 16 re: customs: drink, holidays etc..

We are told to judge if there is sin in the church and to cast out a sinning brother. Therefore, if we do not, we are perverting the church. Eject a pastor, a member, a choir member, a deacon, or anybody that walks in darkness amidst the congregation. We will discuss that in the very next chapter.

The best thing that ever happened to the Episcopal church was to split due to the ordination of homosexuals. The positive spin is this: we know them by their fruits. They have openly admitted their perversions and the supporters have, too. Positive? Yes, now we know the enemies who sat next to us all that time. Perhaps many children were saved from molestation at their hands because the true believers are called to separate themselves from such hypocrites and messengers of satan. We never follow blindly because we test them by the Word. Should they fall short and live on without repentance, cast them out or separate yourself from them-this is the order form God's Word. In fact, we are told that even though God hates divorce (Malachi 2:16; I Corinthians 7:10-11), He still allows us as Christians to get a divorce if we are abandoned by an unbeliever. We see that here: But if the unbelieving departs, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace. (I Cor. 7:15). One cannot sit at the table of demons and at the Lord's table, also. It is an impossibility although allowing homosexuality or adulterous behavior of any sort into our lives, homes, and churches is doing just that.

<< 1 Corinthians 10:21 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot have a part in both the Lord's table and the table of demons.

New Living Translation (©2007)
You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, too. You cannot eat at the Lord's Table and at the table of demons, too.

English Standard Version (©2001)
You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

International Standard Version (©2008)
You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot dine with the Lord and dine with demons,

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
You cannot drink the cup of our Lord and of the cup of demons, and you cannot share in the table of our Lord and in the table of demons.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
You cannot drink the Lord's cup and the cup of demons. You cannot participate at the table of the Lord and at the table of demons.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: you cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons.

American King James Version
You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: you cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

American Standard Version
Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons.

Douay-Rheims Bible
You cannot drink the chalice of the Lord, and the chalice of devils: you cannot be partakers of the table of the Lord, and of the table of devils.

Darby Bible Translation
Ye cannot drink the Lord's cup, and the cup of demons: ye cannot partake of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons.

English Revised Version
Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of devils.

Webster's Bible Translation
Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons.

Weymouth New Testament
You cannot drink the Lord's cup and the cup of demons: you cannot be joint-partakers both in the table of the Lord and in the table of demons.

World English Bible
You can't both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons.

Young's Literal Translation
Ye are not able the cup of the Lord to drink, and the cup of demons; ye are not able of the table of the Lord to partake, and of the table of demons;

Doing so invites trouble, and, if there is no change in direction, catastrophe is inevitable. A few final words about the shield that homosexualists try to use to cover their perversity:

Again, they claim: "Do Not Judge."

This phrase is used against real Christians specifically in order to make one doubt his own commitment to God. Because of Jesus' demeanor, the homosexualists try to turn that back on the real believer, and some weak believers are actually falling for it. But, those who do fall for it have no root in or understanding of the Word of God. Let's dissect it according the the Word of God before we move on. Note, if an obvious pervert, a flaming streak of abnormality, can in any way cause you to question the Word of God at all, and if you feel a check in your spirit or a sense of befuddlement, then, it is time to get back into the Word and learn for yourself. People can tell you something every day, but it is your own responsibility to find out for yourself. In fact, don't rely on what I say; look it up for yourself.

We are called to judge SIN and this is why:

If a brother sins, or a sister, ONE WHO CONFESSES JESUS AS LORD AND CLAIMS TO BE A CHRISTIAN, then if s/he is unrepentant, we are to have nothing to do with that person. In other words, the continual sin can pervert those around him/her. As a result, we are called to act accordingly. That means to cast him or her out of the congregation and have nothing to do him/her.

Though we will go deeper into the issues in the next chapter, I want to mention it now so that we know our rights and responsibilities according to the commandments of the Word. When we find this unrepentant sinner in our congregation and around our children, fight the battle. Expel him from the church. Go to the school board because it is time for war. Memorize this; look it up. We want to be fully armed to do battle.

We saw already what not to judge, and that is according to meats and holidays and other morally neutral items. This is to build up the weak believer because a strong believer already understands that he does not have to perform a ritualistic exercise to obtain or maintain salvation. But, the weak believer has not grown in that knowledge yet. Therefore, we should not judge him if his weak conscience tells him he must not eat pork. We do not want to cause confusion and offend his conscience by eating in front of him or calling him out because of his weakness.

Yet, seeing a brother sin is another matter entirely. Again, I am just laying a simple groundwork now regarding the unfounded claim that homosexualists say "do not judge" wherein this is taken entirely out of context and used to pervert children, ravage silly young widows, and tempt others into sexual sin.

The Lord tells us through Paul in I Corinthians 5:11:

<< 1 Corinthians 5:11 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
But now I am writing you that you must not associate with anyone who calls himself a brother but is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater or a slanderer, a drunkard or a swindler. With such a man do not even eat.

New Living Translation (©2007)
I meant that you are not to associate with anyone who claims to be a believer yet indulges in sexual sin, or is greedy, or worships idols, or is abusive, or is a drunkard, or cheats people. Don't even eat with such people.

English Standard Version (©2001)
But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
But actually, I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother if he is an immoral person, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler-- not even to eat with such a one.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

International Standard Version (©2008)
But now I am writing to you to stop associating with any so-called brother if he is sexually immoral, greedy, an idolater, a slanderer, a drunk, or a robber. You must even stop eating with someone like that.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
I have written this to you, not to mix, if there is one who is called a brother, and he is a fornicator, or a greedy man, or an idol worshiper, or an abuser, or drunkard, or a robber, with whom you are not even to eat bread.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Now, what I meant was that you should not associate with people who call themselves brothers or sisters in the Christian faith but live in sexual sin, are greedy, worship false gods, use abusive language, get drunk, or are dishonest. Don't eat with such people.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no not to eat.

American King James Version
But now I have written to you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortionist; with such an one no not to eat.

American Standard Version

but as it is, I wrote unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat.

Douay-Rheims Bible

But now I have written to you, not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or a server of idols, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such a one, not so much as to eat.

Darby Bible Translation

But now I have written to you, if any one called brother be fornicator, or avaricious, or idolater, or abusive, or a drunkard, or rapacious, not to mix with him; with such a one not even to eat.

English Revised Version

but now I write unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat.

Webster's Bible Translation

But now I have written to you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother is a lewd person, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such person no not to eat.

Weymouth New Testament

But what I meant was that you were not to associate with any one bearing the name of "brother," if he was addicted to fornication or avarice or idol-worship or abusive language or hard-drinking or greed of gain. With such a man you ought not even to eat.

World English Bible

But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Don't even eat with such a person.

Young's Literal Translation

and now, I did write to you not to keep company with him, if any one, being named a brother, may be a whoremonger, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner -- with such a one not even to eat together;

Rationale:

If we are not called to judge, then why would we cast out this sinning brother? And, I use that term brother (or sister) very loosely, because would a real brother be sinning unfettered in such a way? And, would it be so openly that s/he would feel no shame such that the action itself would become public knowledge? No. If he or she does these things, then he or she is not a real brother or sister.

What about judging people outside of the church?

6. They claim: Jesus Himself said He didn't come to judge."

Answer (Refutation): True: Jesus said that He does not judge but that they are already condemned to hell:

"And if anyone hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him— the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day. For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. And I know that His command is everlasting life" John 12:47-50.

This answers why Jesus actually prayed for the people who put Him to death. Remember, Jesus is the Word of God incarnate or Who came to earth in the flesh (John 1:1, 14).

<< John 1:14 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

New Living Translation (©2007)
So the Word became human and made his home among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness. And we have seen his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son.

English Standard Version (©2001)
And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)

And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

International Standard Version (©2008)
The Word became flesh and lived among us. We gazed on his glory, the kind of glory that belongs to the Father's unique Son, who is full of grace and truth.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
And The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld his glory, the glory as of The Only Begotten of The Father, full of grace and truth.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
The Word became human and lived among us. We saw his glory. It was the glory that the Father shares with his only Son, a glory full of kindness and truth.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

American King James Version
And the Word was made flesh, and dwelled among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

American Standard Version
And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth.

Douay-Rheims Bible
And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we saw his glory, the glory as it were of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Darby Bible Translation
And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us (and we have contemplated his glory, a glory as of an only-begotten with a father), full of grace and truth;

English Revised Version
And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth.

Webster's Bible Translation

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Weymouth New Testament
And the Word came in the flesh, and lived for a time in our midst, so that we saw His glory--the glory as of the Father's only Son, sent from His presence. He was full of grace and truth.

World English Bible
The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Young's Literal Translation
And the Word became flesh, and did tabernacle among us, and we beheld his glory, glory as of an only begotten of a father, full of grace and truth.

Because Jesus was the Word of God, He was also the Law. Therefore, the Jesus we saw that came as flesh –the sinless Jesus who became a man- actually fulfilled the old law by being sinless. But, there remains the person who still rejects Jesus and therefore cannot be dealt with the same way a Christian would be.

The Christian is saved and therefore not judged anymore by Jesus. He has accepted Jesus and that's that. Not that he cannot fall away, mind you, as we have seen, but s/he who lives the Christian life is not judged anymore unless he sins persistently unto death (loss of salvation). These are the ones we are to expel from the church. Jesus said, "the word that I have spoken will judge him...." They are already condemned so Jesus' time on earth was to call people unto Himself. That does not destroy the condemnation that had already taken place as we see in the next scripture. This also was spoken directly by Jesus:

16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. 17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. 18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son. 19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. 21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God "(John 3:15-18).

Jesus as the Word of God is also the comprehensive Law, so He Himself came to countermand the Old Law by fulfilling it. This is why we do not stone people for adultery or homosexuality. There is forgiveness for the most part, which we have already dealt with (except for blasphemy). Only mercy countermands judgment.

These people are condemned already. ALREADY. Therefore, Jesus said that He did not come to condemn because they were already condemned. Further, it is abundantly clear the need to condemn has been annulled because God already condemned these individuals through His manifest, incarnate Word in the person of Jesus. Hence, stoning and such have been discarded. They have been judged, pronounced guilty, and sentenced to death (spiritual). Nevertheless, our duties remain clear to act in unity with the Word, which says to cast these individuals out.

Likewise, Paul said what do I have to do with those without? Do we not judge those who are inside? (I Cor. 5:12). He said he will not judge those outside because they have already been judged and even sentenced. But, to those whom have been blotted clean of sin and then backslide, they are judged by fellow Christians. They remain active but the other cases are now settled, adjudicated, and the sentence is to be carried out at the appointed time. Because of this, we need not waste time with them any longer. But, to the people whom have been deceived and doubt this, especially the younger children and other supporters of homosexuality, for the person who has no knowledge, we write these words to provide them knowledge for life.

Again we see that the law was made for these people, and they shall be judged according to the law:

1 Timothy 1:9-10

King James Version (KJV)

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

They did not accept Jesus, and, according to His Word, they are already condemned.

Part 2

Enemies of the Cross

I will say this again later in more detail but, to continue on now, we need to check off a couple of items that may come up, things that seem to be right but have a perfectly logical refutation. Primarily, as we know, a deception usually contains a little truth mixed in with the actual deception itself. Even kids learn that at a very tender age. No one knows that better than satan himself and that is the method of attack employed now by homosexual activists. We see that in several respects: 1. They want to legalize gay marriage under the guise of "equality" whereas they have no more right to gay marriage than a man has a right to marry a dog. In fact, I saw recently on the television where a woman had had sexual relations with her dog. She could claim that she was being discriminated against and that she had the right to pursue her happiness…and that in fact having sex with her dog gave her that happiness. She could say that she had been set aside particularly and denied the right to marry because people did not agree. However, she cannot make that claim because there is a law against bestiality. So, the law supersedes her legal ability to claim discrimination. Likewise, states have made laws defining marriage as between a man and a woman. Activist homosexual judges have stricken down such laws claiming they claim the laws discriminated against homosexuals. Why the double standard? Why would we allow a homosexual judge in California to say that voting down homosexual marriage was unconstitutional and thereby allow one man to strike down the vote of the whole state? …a population of 37 million people…overridden by one homosexual pervert? Why? Is democracy not what America has founded itself on? He should be removed from office.

This is the deception. Never in 7000 years of recorded history has there been the push to legalize homosexual marriage before now. Attitudes have not changed. People are still in their right mind, at least for the most part. Therefore, we need to address the issues and understand them for what they really are. Parents, understand that your children are not your friends, and now is the time more than ever before to be a real parent-the one who was given that position to come in and save the day when necessary. You wouldn't let your spouse bring in a lover and have sex in your bed, would you? This is even worse.

How Do We Define and React to the People Who Advocate Homosexuality?

The Bible calls these people "enemies of the cross." Listen closely, whether it be a school teacher, a school principal, a friend, a parent, a judge, a legislator, or even your pastor, anyone, anyone, anyone at all who assists, promotes, supports, or even verbally advocates homosexuality in any form whatsoever is an "enemy of the cross." Those are God's words, not mine. Actually, because those are God's words, those are my words, as well. Scripture backs it up and tells us exactly how we should deal with people who support homosexuality.

How do we know to treat these people as our enemies?

Let's look at many translations so no one can claim the translators got it wrong:

James 4:4

King James Version (KJV)

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

James 4:4 (KJ21)

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

James 4:4 (ASV)

4 Ye adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore would be a friend of the world maketh himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (AMP)

[4] You [are like] unfaithful wives [having illicit love affairs with the world and breaking your marriage vow to God]! Do you not know that being the world's friend is being God's enemy? So whoever chooses to be a friend of the world takes his stand as an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (CEB)

[4] You unfaithful people! Don't you know that friendship with the world makes you an enemy of God?

James 4:4 (CJB)

[4] You unfaithful wives! Don't you know that loving the world is hating God? Whoever chooses to be the world's friend makes himself God's enemy!

James 4:4 (CEV)

[4] You people aren't faithful to God! Don't you know that if you love the world, you are God's enemies? And if you decide to be a friend of the world, you make yourself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (DARBY)

[4] Adulteresses, know ye not that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore is minded to be [the] friend of the world is constituted enemy of God.

James 4:4 (DRA)

[4] Adulterers, know you not that the friendship of this world is the enemy of God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of this world, becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (ERV)

[4] You people are not faithful to God! You should know that loving what the world has is the same as hating God. So anyone who wants to be friends with this evil world becomes God's enemy.

James 4:4 (ESV)

[4] You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (ESVUK)

[4] You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (GW)

4 You unfaithful people! Don’t you know that love for this evil world is hatred toward God? Whoever wants to be a friend of this world is an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (GNT)

4 Unfaithful people! Don't you know that to be the world's friend means to be God's enemy? If you want to be the world's friend, you make yourself God's enemy.

James 4:4 (HCSB)

4 Adulteresses! Don’t you know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? So whoever wants to be the world’s friend becomes God’s enemy.

James 4:4-6 (PHILLIPS)

4-6 You are like unfaithful wives, flirting with the glamour of this world, and never realizing that to be the world’s lover means becoming the enemy of God! Anyone who deliberately chooses to love the world is thereby making himself God’s enemy. Do you think what the scriptures have to say about this is a mere formality? Or do you imagine that this spirit of passionate jealousy is the Spirit he has caused to live in us? No, he gives us grace potent enough to meet this and every other evil spirit, if we are humble enough to receive it. That is why he says: ‘God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.’

James 4:4 (KJV)

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

James 4:4 (LEB)

4 Adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4-6 (MSG)

4-You’re cheating on God. If all you want is your own way, flirting with the world every chance you get, you end up enemies of God and his way. And do you suppose God doesn't care? The proverb has it that "he's a fiercely jealous lover." And what he gives in love is far better than anything else you'll find. It's common knowledge that "God goes against the willful proud; God gives grace to the willing humble."

James 4:4 (MOUNCE)

4 You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever desires to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (NASB)

4 You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (NCV)

4 So, you are not loyal to God! You should know that loving the world is the same as hating God. Anyone who wants to be a friend of the world becomes God's enemy.

James 4:4 (NIRV)

4 You are not faithful to God. Don't you know that to be a friend of the world is to hate God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (NIV)

4 You adulterous people, don’t you know that friendship with the world means enmity against God? Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (NIV1984)

4 You adulterous people, don’t you know that friendship with the world is hatred toward God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (NIVUK)

4 You adulterous people, don’t you know that friendship with the world means enmity against God? Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (NKJV)

4 Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (NLV)

[4] You are as wives and husbands who are not faithful in marriage and do sex sins. Do you not know that to love the sinful things of the world and to be a friend to them is to be against God? Yes, I say it again, if you are a friend of the world, you are against God.

James 4:4 (NLT)

[4] You adulterers! Don't you realize that friendship with the world makes you an enemy of God? I say it again: If you want to be a friend of the world, you make yourself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (TNIV)

[4] You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world means enmity against God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (WE)

[4] You people promised God you would be true to him, but you did not stay true! Do you not know that if you love the world you hate God? Anyone who wants to be a lover of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 4:4 (WYC)

[4] Adulterers, know not ye, that the friendship of this world is enemy to God? Therefore whoever will be the friend of this world, is made the enemy of God.

James 4:4 (YLT)

[4] Adulterers and adulteresses! have ye not known that friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever, then, may counsel to be a friend of the world, an enemy of God he is set.

Adultery is not limited to having sex with another if you are married to someone else. It can also be spiritual adultery, and that is where adultery actually stems from. We have already seen that homosexuality is a form of idolatry (Romans ch. 1 see above). Therefore, even though one claims to believe in God and even claims to serve God, if homosexuality is tolerated in any form, it is heresy and friendship with the world. The Bible as we saw in Romans chapter 1 says that is worshiping the "…created more than the Creator."

Being an enemy of the cross means one is an enemy of God. Think hard: that said, every pastor that has said homosexuality is ok is an enemy of the very God Almighty that he claims to serve. He then is an enemy of you, and enemy of your child, an enemy of your family, and an enemy of the United States of America. S/he might as well admit openly to serving satan as a devil worshiper because according to the Bible, that is exactly what s/he is doing.

7. They claim: Well (they will say) we cannot take one or two scriptures from the Bible and make these types of claims.

Answer (Refutation):

First, we saw one cause for homosexuality and that was being "given over" to a debased (corrupt) mind by God Himself. This is done out of God's anger and disgust (abomination-see above) because these people have dishonored God. The preacher who supports homosexuality to get a bigger church and more money is the perfect example. Any refusal to condemn what God Himself condemns is heresy, and that pastor is a liar and a traitor to God. He claims to know God but does not honor God and God's commandments. Therefore, God has spewed this person from his mouth like lukewarm water (Revelations 3:16). Joel Osteen said on national TV that he "would go to a gay wedding" and that he is "not against anything" (2). This is a classic example of heresy in action, and Joel Osteen has made himself an enemy of the cross. There can be no such thing as having a gay friend if one is truly a Christian. Let's look at many translations lest we be accused of perverting the meaning.

Parallel Translations

Revelations 3:16

New International Version (©1984)
So, because you are lukewarm--neither hot nor cold--I am about to spit you out of my mouth.

New Living Translation (©2007)
But since you are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth!

English Standard Version (©2001)
So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
'So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth.

International Standard Version (©2008)
Since you are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, I am going to spit you out of my mouth.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
"And you are lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I am going to vomit you from my mouth."

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)

But since you are lukewarm and not hot or cold, I'm going to spit you out of my mouth.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
So then because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of my mouth.

American King James Version
So then because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of my mouth.

American Standard Version
So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth.

Douay-Rheims Bible
But because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold, not hot, I will begin to vomit thee out of my mouth.

Darby Bible Translation
Thus because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spew thee out of my mouth.

English Revised Version
So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth.

Webster's Bible Translation
So then, because thou art luke-warm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit thee out of my mouth:

Weymouth New Testament
Accordingly, because you are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, before long I will vomit you out of My mouth.

World English Bible
So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth.

Young's Literal Translation
So -- because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit thee out of my mouth;

There is a line of these verses we can trace throughout the Bible that supports the same verse.

Parallel Translations

Philippians 3: 18

New International Version (©1984)
For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.

New Living Translation (©2007)
For I have told you often before, and I say it again with tears in my eyes, that there are many whose conduct shows they are really enemies of the cross of Christ.

English Standard Version (©2001)
For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
For many walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ,

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

International Standard Version (©2008)
For I have often told you, and now tell you even with tears, that many live as enemies of the cross of the Messiah.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
For many who walk differently, about whom I have told you many times, but now as I weep, I say that they are the enemies of the cross of The Messiah.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
I have often told you, and now tell you with tears in my eyes, that many live as the enemies of the cross of Christ.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

American King James Version
(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

American Standard Version
For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

Douay-Rheims Bible
For many walk, of whom I have told you often (and now tell you weeping), that they are enemies of the cross of Christ;

Darby Bible Translation
(for many walk of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

English Revised Version
For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

Webster's Bible Translation
(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

Weymouth New Testament
For there are many whom I have often described to you, and I now even with tears describe them, as being enemies to the Cross of Christ.

World English Bible
For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ,

Young's Literal Translation
for many walk of whom many times I told you -- and now also weeping tell -- the enemies of the cross of the Christ!

We already saw that homosexuals will go to hell. Any preacher that tells you otherwise will go to hell, as well, because the Bible is very clear (I Cor. 6:9). Consequently, the preacher that you hear say a homosexual will get into heaven is a heretic, especially if he gets onto Larry King live- Joel Osteen- and says this. He is a greedy, manipulative man trying to enlarge his church at the expense of the souls of the gullible. My goal here is to educate people, especially parents, so that the children will not be condemned to spend eternity in hell because some gutless, vile, traitor does not have enough courage to stand up against the enemy. They themselves become enemies to God and to us who turn our children over to satan himself for their own gain. Fight for your children.

We see in the scripture above that Paul had called people within the church "enemies of the cross." He speaks of Hymenaeus and Alexander who were excommunicated- "delivered to satan that they learn not to blaspheme" (I Tim 1:20). In another instance, Paul tells us that Alexander and Philetus were excommunicated or kicked out of the church because they spread the rumor that the resurrection had already taken place (II Tim 2: 18).

If these people were "given over" to satan as a result of heresy regarding doctrine, the same is true for homosexualists whose goal is to pervert the church. These same heretics pervert through doctrine in addition to action. The very preacher or priest to whom you have entrusted your welfare and the welfare of your child is indeed and in fact an enemy of God; you do not want him to be anywhere near you or your family. Moreover, you do not want to be anywhere near him when satan comes calling to collect his own. Being turned over bears slim chance of any restoration and scripture tells us simply that on one occasion Paul turned a member of the church over to satan so that his spirit might be saved.

8. They claim: This does not pertain to monogamous, committed homosexuals.

Answer (Refutation): The condemnation of homosexuality pertains to any and all homosexuality. We see no clause excluding married homosexuals, 'committed' homosexuals, nor any other definition whatsoever. We only see that all homosexuals are condemned to hell. Therefore, there is no excuse or exclusionary clause that allows sin. Period. Let's remember also this Old Testament was written 1600 years before the verse in the New Testament condemning homosexuality. Only the approach to God had changed and not the law of right and wrong-the law of sin and death never changed. Below we see a monogamous, heterosexual, sexual sin condemned where a man takes his stepmother presumably after his father's passing. Heterosexual. Monogamous. Condemned. How much more sorer the punishment to perform homosexuality that is expressly forbidden in both the Old and New Testaments?

Joel Osteen does not know his Bible, and that church was simply handed to him by his truly committed father who has passed on. Now God is revealing the truth about Joel Osteen to the whole world! A preacher supporting homosexual weddings is an abomination.

9. They claim: That only condemns the usage of male prostitutes at the temple.

Answer (Refutation); False. Though the temples in Corinth did have male prostitutes, the condemnation spreads a net over all homosexuality. We see that below:

Leviticus 18:22

New International Version (NIV)

22 "Do not have sexual relations with a man as one does with a woman; that is detestable."

King James Version (KJV)

22 "Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination."

The word abomination here is Greek BDELUGMA (3), which means "disgust." We already saw in the first chapter and in Romans 1 that God turns people over to homosexuality out of disgust. Therefore, we have the supporting scriptures condemning all homosexuality. Committed simply means the two are committed to going to hell together.

We see this same ejection applies to heterosexuals, as well, even in a monogamous, committed-to-hell relationship.

1 Corinthians 5:1-5

New International Version (NIV)

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that even pagans do not tolerate: A man is sleeping with his father's wife. 2 And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have gone into mourning and have put out of your fellowship the man who has been doing this? 3 For my part, even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit. As one who is present with you in this way, I have already passed judgment in the name of our Lord Jesus on the one who has been doing this. 4 So when you are assembled and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present, 5 hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord.

Kindly note this though: Paul is instructing the Corinthian church to expel this man whose offense was to take the wife of his father. The church is giving the man over to satan. God is not giving the man over to satan, which is what we see in Romans chapter 1. The result is two pronged: the church gives the man over that hopefully he may repent and be saved. God gives the man over so that he will be destroyed. God's rejection results in homosexuality, and we have no indication there is any possible restoration (Romans ch. 1). In fact, man is called to God by the Holy Spirit Himself. The Holy Spirit convicts people of sin. If one blasphemes the Holy Spirit and God actually gives him or her over to satan as a result, why in the world would someone have the audacity to think that God will then turn around and call him or her back into the fold?

When the Holy Spirit is gone, there is nothing else. Sooner or later, the Holy Spirit stops knocking, and the decision is final. It is then a one way ticket to hell.

<< 1 Corinthians 5:5 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
hand this man over to Satan, so that the sinful nature may be destroyed and his spirit saved on the day of the Lord.

New Living Translation (©2007)
Then you must throw this man out and hand him over to Satan so that his sinful nature will be destroyed and he himself will be saved on the day the Lord returns.

English Standard Version (©2001)
you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
I have decided to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

International Standard Version (©2008)
turn this man over to Satan for the destruction of his body, so that his spirit may be saved on the Day of the Lord.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
And you shall deliver this one to Satan for the destruction of his body, that he may live in The Spirit in the day of our Lord Yeshua The Messiah.

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
hand such a person over to Satan to destroy his corrupt nature so that his spiritual nature may be saved on the day of the Lord.

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)

To deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

American King James Version
To deliver such an one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

American Standard Version
to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Douay-Rheims Bible
To deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Darby Bible Translation
to deliver him, I say, being such, to Satan for destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

English Revised Version
to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Webster's Bible Translation
To deliver such one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Weymouth New Testament
I have handed over such a man to Satan for the destruction of his body, that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord Jesus.

World English Bible
are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Young's Literal Translation
to deliver up such a one to the Adversary for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

In I Timothy, Paul once again tells us who goes to hell, and in the list, he names "sodomites." This supports I Cor. 6:9 that lists homosexuals as not inheriting the kingdom of God, which means they will go to hell-People go to heaven or hell-one or the other.

Yet we need to add another scripture that tells us to treat these blasphemers as enemies:

"…should you help the wicked and love those who hate the Lord? Therefore the wrath of the Lord is upon you" (2 Chronicles 19:11). We will see later how living this traitorous lifestyle which includes any form of assistance to the homosexual agenda, even allowing them to sit at your table and eat, can cause a number of maladies for you and your family. We will look at actual cases of demonic oppression and possession that occurred for flirting with the enemy. It is one or the other. Parents, it is your responsibility –especially now- to ensure that you are not inviting demonic activity into your home. Again, later we will look at how to deal with a homosexual family member, one that you cannot simply discard. There is an answer. And that does not include giving in to their whims and thereby giving them over to satan. Somebody in that house has to stand, and it has to be you.

Make no mistake: giving in means giving them over.

One of the hardest parts to deal with is when and where to draw the line. It is not so difficult to figure that out if we equate homosexuality with another sin. But, let's also understand that homosexuality is even worse because it is for some, as we saw, an unforgivable sin.

Let's just sum things up at this point:

Homosexual is idolatry. That breaks the first commandment. Homosexuality is the result of being turned over by God to a debased mind as saw in Romans chapter 1. Debased means :

de·base (dĭ-bās')
tr.v. de·based, de·bas·ing, de·bas·es
To lower in character, quality, or value; degrade. See Synonyms at adulterate, corrupt, degrade.

Another translation of that verse is reprobate, which means:

rep·ro·bate (rĕp'rə-bāt') n.
1. A morally unprincipled person.
2. One who is predestined to damnation.
adj.
1. Morally unprincipled; shameless.
2. Rejected by God and without hope of salvation.
tr.v. rep·ro·bat·ed, rep·ro·bat·ing, rep·ro·bates
1. To disapprove of; condemn.
2. To abandon to eternal damnation. Used of God.

This opens the door to the demonic world, which we will see next. All protection is gone.

Consider this: the countries that have legalized homosexuality are completely broke and overrun with foreigners like Britain, for instance, or they have an extremely high suicide rate like the Nordic countries. Britain is the worst example of what can happen to a country. They are in a panic and letting in foreigners by the droves because the people age 50 onward now do not have enough to draw a pension from the government. The whole country has turned into a gay melting pot. Christians have absolutely no voice at all. One Brit recently told me that he feels he nothing to fight for in his country because everything is gone-everything decent, that is. The democratic party wants America to be exactly like that. It is all in the name of diversity and acceptance. The Brit actually said, "there is nothing left to fight for."

Anyone at all who supports homosexuality is considered a friend of the world and therefore an enemy of God (James 4:4, Philippians 3:18).

God will spew anyone like this out of His mouth. That means He will not hear you in your darkest hour. You in turn are given over for support of such things. You are a partaker of the demon's cup should you support homosexuality (Revelations 3:16).

Take Lot's wife as an example in Genesis chapter 19. She turned and looked at Sodom as they left, disobeying God's command. They were told specifically not to even look back, but she did. She had to look at her friends one last time. Consequently, she was turned into a pillar of salt. Lot's wife was a "friend of the word." It cost her her life. As we know, God had told Lot to leave the city because the whole city was corrupt and the homosexuals were so brazen as to demand that Lot deliver angels to them so that they could know them. These homosexuals were messing with the wrong guys, as they say. Unbeknownst to the city dwellers who wanted to rape the strange men at Lot's house right then and there, the intended victims were actually angels. We know the rest-the twin cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed by fire from heaven.

As Lot and his family were in the very act of deliverance from the cities, in flight, Lot's wife could just not let go, and she paid dearly for her refusal to separate from that evil. As they fled, her thoughts were even still there. She was enticed by it, and it became her end. This represents God's adamancy in commanding us to separate ourselves from iniquity. Her end was written down for our instruction.

Next, we see that this makes people enemies of the cross-enemies of God, actually. At that point, there is nothing they can do. Consequently, this is the most dangerous place in the world for anyone to be. Their lives are open to demonic attack. Their children are not safe. Their spouses are not safe. Anything is possible and destruction is sure.

Analysis

Let's analyze several things. First, we see that homosexuality can be the result of a curse. It is then not only the status of being left alone from God, but it also extends to a worse and more torturous place-one where the individual is actually given over to the worst of the worst. Recall, that is found in Romans chapter one.

Second, we have refuted the defenses many people have bought into who are trying to side with homosexual radicals in the overthrow of our system. If these supporters claim to be Christians, then we also have established through God's Word that they are blasphemers. For that blasphemer, there is no return to the fold for he has and does openly put Jesus to shame, crucifying Him once again, and there remains no more propitiation for sin.

Finally, all of these people are called "enemies of the cross." That is the very worst place one can be. To be the enemy of your Creator is unthinkable. Yet, there they are, and they still seek to bring in others to their cause. Misery definitely loves company. What a cunning attack from satan! The ploy from evil now is to get people to feel sorry for them. This is exactly like the serial killer who claims he is not culpable because he was beaten as a child. This defense has become so common that in some states it is actually a legal defense. The approach from radicals is exactly the same. Take the case in Wyoming for instance. Two men murdered a homosexual. But, it has been hidden or deliberately misreported that one of them actually was himself a homosexual. It was a tragic thing, but it did not stem from hatred against homosexuals. It was a robbery, and the main homosexual killer intended to have sex with the boy, but things went awry. Tragic, yes. Sure. Our heart goes out to anyone related to him-family and friends. But, radicals have lied about the facts and used the murder to further their radical agenda of tearing down your family.

The case at Rutgers is another example. The boy committed suicide because he was so ashamed that the lewd and debased acts he committed were seen by the people he called friends that he could not live with it. He therefore decided to take his own life rather than face the music. Who is to blame for that? Not us. Sad, again, yes. Even tragic. Tragic because he is now answering for that sin for all eternity, and the radicals want your son to be right there with him. Sympathy is their first and last line of attack.

How can we support one who has devolved into animalistic behavior?

10. They claim: But even animals engage in homosexual behavior!

Answer (Refutation):

Are our children animals that beat each other to the fence like dogs? Obama said his views on homosexuality have evolved. Oprah said accepting homosexuality is evolving. It is actually devolving because it is acting like an animal. Is anal sex sophisticated? …or "fisting" sophisticated or elevated in any form or fashion? It is the lowest form of behavior, so how can animal-like behavior with no constraints be evolved? Dogs root and hump-even on people's legs…sophisticated?

Again, are our children animals that should beat each other to the fence to be the first one to get the prize? …to be the first one in line?

Of course not. Then, why condone that?

We can only act in obedience to what the Word of God has to say about it.

Most importantly, and this is in the next chapter, homosexuality is a playground for demons. Above all, there is no better reason to fight like a warrior to preserve your children and preserve our nation. I have travelled around the world over and over again, and I have seen and know that one thing is sure: Any courting of the homosexual agenda in any form at all courts disaster. It is giving the nation over to demonic influence and weakens the very fabric of society.

So, what does the Bible say about dealing with homosexuals, sympathizers, and outright supporters? Let's see. But, first, ladies, note this: if your husband is a supporter of homosexuality and even any gay rights at all, that is grounds for divorce. It spells out in very simple terms who he is and what he stands for. You need to check him; you need to follow him. Observe him because he may have a secret. If so, you have every right to file for divorce because he is engaging in idolatry and spiritual adultery. He most likely has more secrets, and they are just waiting to be exposed.

How to Handle the Sinning Brother and Homosexual Supporter

First and foremost, cast him out from the flock. Get him away from you and your family as far as possible. Remember, Joel Osteen had said that he would go to a gay wedding. That is actually taking part in idolatry. It supports sin 100%, and he will pay for that. God will not tolerate his people's friendship with the world. Furthermore, a preacher is held to a higher standard of accountability. That should make one think: why do we never hear actual preaching of and from the Word by him? He is what the Bible calls an empty vessel.

1 Corinthians 5:5

King James Version (KJV)

5" To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus."

The scripture above is for those brothers who do not engage in blasphemy because there still may be a chance for them. However, this is not true for blasphemers. If we are called to cast out a so-called brother, then certainly we are called to stay away from those who practice such things and are not believers. We are, of course, still called to be ambassadors of Jesus, so we must be polite and must show respect accorded to people simply because of we are Christians. Anything further invites trouble and goes against the commandments of God. The result is seen both in the personal arena, such as at home, with the family, how we conduct our business (serving at a homosexual wedding is forbidden, as well), and in the bigger picture, the political arena. It is utterly senseless to say that should not affect the way we vote. I heard Al Sharpton on TV supporting women's right to planned parenting. Now, how will a self professed man of God support abortion? How can he support a president (note the little 'p') who openly advocates the abortion of his grandchild? Obama said he wouldn't punish his daughter with a baby if she got pregnant (3) (http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HB5Frgw0Fww). What kind of man would advocate killing his own grandchild? And how can he lead a whole country? He will lead us into complete chaos like he has already done. He is not an empty vessel but a poisonous vessel that spews forth lies and advocates death to innocent babies by the instrument of state funded abortions. What next? If he cares nothing for his own grandchild, for sure all else he says is simply rhetoric.

Should that not affect our vote? Are we that dull that we cannot see a connection between these malignancies in our culture and the end result on us as a country? Why let it in the church? Why let it in the family?

1 Corinthians 5:11

King James Version (KJV)

11 "But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat."

Now, we see that we cannot even eat with such a person. And a preacher has the audacity to get on national TV and say he would give his blessing to these same idol worshipers by attending their wedding? People, how can he tell you anything at all? He cannot give a true Christian even the time of day. We should be that far removed from him. Several years ago, a famous preacher with a huge congregation announced on TV that he was told by God there is no hell. He said he heard a voice. Newsflash, that was not the voice of the Lord God Almighty. That was a demonic voice to to whom he had opened his hearing. He had done something to create this opening for the enemy to get a direct line to him. Consider this, had this preacher been in the Word daily, would he allow the slightest hint of heresy to creep into his understanding? No. Never. How could he then take a so-called one time epiphany to controvert the whole Bible?

Answer: His mind had opened up to the point that he allowed this heresy to destroy everything he had believed in and posited up to that point.

Dr. Steven Swisher of Kenneth Copeland Ministries did everything he could do to unite KCM with the United Theological Seminary to present a doctoral program under auspices of the church. The United Theological seminary allows homosexuals in the school and even had a note supporting diversity and welcoming people regardless of their sexual orientation. I approached Steven Swisher about it and he said it is their right to be in the program to become ministers. He called it their civil right. In essence, that is supporting homosexuality in the church.

The scripture above says not to even eat with a fornicator. That includes heterosexual sex. Think about training a practicing homosexual in the church in order that he may go out and become a a pastor. That is what Steven Swisher supports. Be careful who you trust. Ask questions! Why would one openly support the worst of the worst type of behavior? …the behavior that is the result of disgusting God to the point n of being turned over to satan?

1 Corinthians 6:16

King James Version (KJV)

16 "What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh."

Harlotry or giving oneself to satan or sin starts as a condition of the heart. That is why Jesus said if a man even lusts after a woman in his heart then he has already committed adultery (Matthew 5:28 "but I tell you that everyone who gazes at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart").

Ladies, if you were introduced to a woman at the church who said "hello, my name is Sally and I am an adulteress," what would your reaction be? Would you reach over and shake her hand and say "Welcome, this is my husband, Bill, and he regards adultery in his heart too. Maybe you too can form a support group together –alone- and talk about it." ?

Or, men, if a man said "Hi, my name is Bob, and I slept with 16 women last year; 12 were married, but I am dealing with it; I hope you understand," What would you do? What would your reaction be?

I think we all know the answer. So, why would you let anyone tell you to accept that from your child? It is even worse if it is homosexuality because that is an inherently unnatural sin that invites a worse type of reaction from God. We have already determined that through scriptural support.

1 Corinthians 10:13

King James Version (KJV)

13 "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it".

A man I know through someone else said he had prayed for 18 years to be delivered from homosexuality but finally gave into it. He wrote on his Facebook page that after 18 years of praying to be delivered from homosexuality, he finally knew that God wanted him to be gay because God had never delivered him. That is silly. Any adulterer could say that, and they do. And, they die in their sin. Families get sick because of it. The sins of the fathers are realized by the sons and daughters. It will continue in the family until it is cleaned out. We will deal with that in the very next chapter. There remains a deliverance. Any teacher, preacher, or family member or friend who says otherwise should be kicked out of the house without hesitation.

Another country female singer who recently admitted she was a lesbian and was celebrated on Oprah for having "courage" said the same thing. She said God wanted her that way because He never answered her prayers to be change her. Anyone who is sick could say the same thing, yet hundreds of thousands of people have been healed at the Benny Hinn services alone. Total surrender is what God wants. We come on His terms and not ours. To remain committed to that lifestyle be it homosexual or whatever is idolatry of the heart. Any courting of it is sin. Looking back like Lot's wife did is sin, as well. We see her punishment.

In fact, listen closely (and it is never too late to turn back if you have any doubt in your heart because that indicates you or your loved one has not been turned over yet): God will never answer a prayer like the one the homosexual prayed. The seeker must be contrite. God will never answer if this is wrong, then prove it to me by changing me. The person praying here has just insulted God. God has already said it in His Word, and He has absolutely nothing to prove to you. We have to go to Him believing the Word first, and then He will raise us from there. It's not the other way around. Yes, God does heal people and even delivers people. But, as Benny Hinn says, God heals sinners out of grace but believers out of His covenant. He also made in His covenant the promise that the wages of sin is death. Therefore, how can a person and even a country escape God's wrath when sinning persistently and lauding the leaders who lead them into death? Just examine the facts.

Why didn't God answer the lesbian's and the homosexual's prayers?

Look at this verse, and this is exactly what Lot's wife did:

Psalms 66:18

"If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me" (King James Version).

" If I delight in wickedness, God will not hear me, but if I confess it, he will receive me" (Geneva Bible).

To regard is to let sin still have a place, to look on that thing with favor, which is idolatry. It has taken a place where God Himself wants to be. Once again, God has nothing at all to do with evil and will not reside where evil resides. That means any type of sin.

So, surely, if you go to a church where the preacher has a gay friend or sympathizes with the activism, God is not there, no matter what you see. Even satan can act like he is an angel of light ("And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light" II Cor. 2:14). You may hear what appears to be talking in tongues, see deliverance from sickness, and experience camaraderie, but it is fake. Demons copy these things and even speak in unknown tongues, but that they are copying the Holy Spirit to seduce people who have no discernment of such things. It appears to be real, but it is counterfeit. How would there be healing then? It is not real healing. Demons have the power to make people sick, so they do this as a ploy to appear that in that specific church people have been healed. Whereas, in truth, that is simply not the case. Deception is always the tool, and the certain methods employed are through evoking sympathy, making sympathizers feel they need to protect someone, victimizing, blaming, displaying counterfeit gifts, legalizing (this is one aspect of spiritual wickedness in high places –OBAMA, HILLARY), and any other behavior supporting sin.

1 Corinthians 10:21-22

King James Version (KJV)

21 "Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than He?"

So, some idiot totally void of understanding says, "Why can't homosexuals worship with us? They are just people too." We have the answer right here above in verse 21. You cannot have it both ways. The "accept all" and "diversity" deception means that you accept sin and perversions or else YOU are the bad guy.

Gotta give you a big, fat NO on that one.

In fact, look what Jesus said, which brings us to another refutation:

11. "They claim: "What would Jesus do? He said to love and accept everyone."

Answer (Refutation): False: Look at exactly what He said in addition to all the scriptures that we have looked at instructing us to separate from such filth:

<< Matthew 10:34-37 >>
New International Version 1984

34"Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. 35For I have come to turn

"'a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—
36 a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.'

37"Anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; 38 and anyone who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. 39 Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

If Jesus had said to accept homosexuality and accept all as the activists, TEACHERS, PRINCIPALS, AND DIRTY POLITICIANS are trying to deceive our youngsters into believing, then JESUS had absolutely NO REASON TO DIE ON THE CROSS. Then, if that is true, He died in vain. Think hard about that for just a minute. He died because of our sins as a free gift to all who accept Him and then turn away from their evil sin and forsake it to take up Him and bear His cross. All or nothing. That is it. Homosexuality is one of the dividing lines in the Great Falling Away.

Galatians 1:7-8

King James Version (KJV)

7 "Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

Now, again, let's consider it: these people are already cursed. See verse 8: CURSED! I know a man whose daughter came out as a lesbian. The family was a fine Christian family from a long line of Christians. The parents wrestled with it for ages. The daughter told them that if they did not accept her lover that they would lose her. Eventually they broke down and gave in to this emotional blackmail. As time went on, they even allowed the daughter and her lover to move onto some of their property. Instantly there was a spiritual attack on the parents that manifested itself through sickness. Both parents-Christians- got deathly ill. The father, a fine Christian man, eventually suffered a permanent physical impairment. By opening up the door to this curse of homosexuality, the family was attacked. Yes, even Christians can suffer and lose from these attacks. Let's examine why and how.

First, the lesbian daughter claims to be a Christian, so she has taken the name of the Lord and has blasphemed it. According to verse 8 above, she is now cursed for perverting the gospel and for blaspheming the holy name of Jesus, as well. When the parents allowed her to move onto their land by consent, they invited demonic presence into their lives. Instantly then, the war started because dark and light will not co-exist. The result was sickness. If a Christian enters an evil area, he will automatically feel that. Yet, if it is invited, he has given a place to demonic powers to alight. Proverbs backs this up:

<< Proverbs 26:2 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, an undeserved curse does not come to rest.

New Living Translation (©2007)
Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, an undeserved curse will not land on its intended victim.

English Standard Version (©2001)
Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, a curse that is causeless does not alight.

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, So a curse without cause does not alight.

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.

Two things: She had a curse on her already. Then, she was invited to partake of the Christian's table. The lesbians and everything they brought with them were welcomed at the table of the Christians. Did we not already see above that one cannot drink the cup of demons and the cup of the Lord, too? Is this said in vain or for our edification?

How to Treat a Son or Daughter Claiming Homosexuality

First, you must start praying and speaking the Word of God over that child. Regardless of the child's age, God will hear you, and your child is still your blood. You have the power to cast off demonic presence, especially if your child is too young to understand the gravity of the situation. Be advised, that is the method of attack now-to attack and indoctrinate the young people even before they are old enough to understand, when still prepubescent, so that they automatically look on homosexuality as normal. Again, the curse has no place or reason to alight if not invited. The same is true if someone else tries to curse you-it is impossible if you do not give it a place. That invitation may not be intentionally understood to be to a curse, but immoral and abnormal sexual behavior-sin-is an invitation to demonic presence and hence a curse.

Praying gives you as a believing Christian power over evil. You cannot change the person's free will, but you can attack the influences that are assailing this loved one. You as a Christian have the power to bind and loose. Look at the scripture where this is even what Jesus called the keys to the kingdom of heaven:

<< Matthew 16:19 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
"I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

New Living Translation (©2007)
And I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you forbid on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven."

English Standard Version (©2001)
I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
"I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven."

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

If the child is grown, s/he cannot live there with you anymore. The lesbian we spoke about above was a grown woman. There was no reason at all to allow her to live there. The blackmail worked. Poor people. My heart really goes out to them. But, also, take notice-the lesbian is a professed Christian-and I said professed (not in deed but only in talk). That is why we are told to be a do-er of the word. Little does she know that she caused this pain and agony for her father and mother. All she cared about was who she slept with.

Back to binding and loosing, that means you have to speak the Word of God and cast down evil around your child.

For instance, in the name of Jesus, I command evil powers to leave >>>>>>name here>>>> and I decree in the name of Jesus that "No weapon formed against >>>>name here>>>> shall prosper according to Isaiah 54:17.

<< Isaiah 54:17 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
no weapon forged against you will prevail, and you will refute every tongue that accuses you. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and this is their vindication from me," declares the LORD.

New Living Translation (©2007)
But in that coming day no weapon turned against you will succeed. You will silence every voice raised up to accuse you. These benefits are enjoyed by the servants of the LORD; their vindication will come from me. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Now you have set yourself in agreement with the Word of the Lord, and He will make sure it comes to pass. But, to be successful, you must abolish your own idols, as well. Throw out anything in the house that attracts demonic presence, and turn yourself over to Jesus. Then, He will hear you and answer you.

Jesus gave us authority over evil:

<< Matthew 10:1 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
He called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority to drive out evil spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

New Living Translation (©2007)
Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority to cast out evil spirits and to heal every kind of disease and illness.

Two other scriptures back that up:

Mark 6:7 Calling the Twelve to him, he sent them out two by two **...

Calling the Twelve to him, he sent them out two by two and gave them authority over evil spirits. **...

Luke 9:1 When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them ...

... And getting the twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all evil spirits and over diseases, to make them well. **...

In fact, we know that we have these powers too because He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. No change.

So, we have to speak it into existence:

Isaiah 57:19

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, says the LORD; and I will heal him.

But you have to believe it first:

<< 2 Corinthians 4:13 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken." With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak,

New Living Translation (©2007)
But we continue to preach because we have the same kind of faith the psalmist had when he said, "I believed in God, so I spoke."

English Standard Version (©2001)

Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, “I believed, and so I spoke,” we also believe, and so we also speak,

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
But having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I BELIEVED, THEREFORE I SPOKE," we also believe, therefore we also speak,

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

It is not a magic formula, and saying something 1000 times does NOT make it come true. But by knowing it IS the Word of God that we speak and that Jesus IS the Word of God Who became flesh (John 1:14), then we are standing in HIS power and not ours when we speak. This is the source and the essence of the power that changes things.

Ephesians 4:17-20

King James Version (KJV)

17” This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;”

Some people give themselves over, and these preachers and politicians who support homosexuality are the ones this verse talks about. People on the fringe, your children, your friends, are the ones we want to save. For the militants, they made their own bed, and we cannot bring them back. Only the conviction of the Holy Spirit can do that, and it is highly unlikely but not impossible. Therefore, these and their supporters are your stark enemies. Treat them as if you would treat a demon lurking in your house because they come to steal, kill, and destroy. Your house is their target.

Ephesians 5:11-13

King James Version (KJV)

11 "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light."

If we are to reprove or rebuff and fight against the powers of darkness, how can we say otherwise? We are ordered to withdraw but that means withdrawing fellowship under and with sin. So, ground rules are what order the day and keep an open door when God actually starts dealing with that person. We are not told to cut off contact from our loved ones but to withdraw.

What to Say to a Grown Child Living a Homosexual Lifestyle

Therefore, we could say "you are welcome here, but I cannot welcome your lover here. If I do that, I am condoning the lifestyle and then I am answerable to God for that is a sin. We have rules in this house and you know what they are."

Now, you may be hit back with a temper tantrum, and that is fine. Stir up that demonic presence. You do not succumb to temper tantrums. After all, if s/he were seduced into believing such abnormality and rebelling against God, would you not expect equal behavior when laying down the law of your own house? …especially when it prohibits this activity around you?

Again, whatever the reaction is, that's fine, too. You did what you were supposed to do. You have now opened the door for the Holy Spirit to do His job. You did yours, now let Him do His!

Most importantly, you have not closed the door on your son or daughter. But, you have closed the door on sin and a curse coming to your house.

S/he always always always has the chance to come back and get counseling from you when the going gets tough. Sin offers pleasure but for a season. But, then it's time to pay. God won't hear when s/he prays and then your child will come to you. That is your job and your responsibility. Then, all ears will be open for your godly counsel. This is the safety measure God set in store for wayward children, especially young adults.

But, just to be sure, this is where they stand, and you are the link to hope. They will listen to you when the party is over. However, if you accept it, you may be the last deadbolt on the door to death….locking them in. Your approval or even unwilling acceptance may be the one last item that shuts the door forever; then, you are accountable. At least if they cannot bring that around you, then you have the floor to speak the truth and nothing but the truth. Your house then is the refuge where truth is found. They can find asylum there. Eventually they will. Hold your mark.

Philippians 3:18

King James Version (KJV)

18 "For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ."

Who said that? Was it I? No, God said that; not me. But I do say that. Yes, I say that because God said that. You must say that too. If you are not against them, you are for them, and you will suffer should you court death. In the next chapter, we will look at case after case that proves courting satan is deadly and that death always comes in by consent.

2 Thessalonians 3:6

King James Version (KJV)

6 "Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us."

1 Timothy 6:5

King James Version (KJV)

5 "Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself."\

2 Timothy 3:2-7

King James Version (KJV)

2 "For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

[7] Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth."

Hebrews 10:26-31

King James Version (KJV)

[26] "For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

[27] But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

[28] He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

[29] Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden underfoot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

[30] For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

[31] It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

That is the final word on it. God is not mocked and whatever we sow, we will reap that same thing. Take this under advisement, too: They sow to the flesh, and those who support it will reap unto the flesh, also, in the form of sickness, dementia, diseases etc….

We need to move into actual cases of demonic influence, oppression, and possession now.

Part 3

Actual Cases of Demon Influence, Oppression, and Possession

We saw one reason why people are turned over and susceptible to demonic spirits. That is in Romans chapter 1. Consider this:

Any type of demonic possession is by consent.

Romans 6:16

New King James Version (NKJV)

[16] Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?

"By consent" is the key here. Perhaps, people do not have any idea about demonic presence when they do these things or even allow it around them, but that is exactly what is happening. Parents, this is imperative information for you to keep your house clean and even to fight whatever may be coming at your children-even grown sons and daughters.

The demonic world has a hierarchy to it just like an army does. Daniel had prayed and was then visited thereafter by an angel who explained why he had been detained in helping Daniel. A demon with geographical control over a certain region had withstood his assistance.

Daniel 10:12-14

New King James Version (NKJV)

[12] Then he said to me, "Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard; and I have come because of your words. [13] But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia. [14] Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision refers to many days yet to come."

Then Michael helped the angel assigned to answer Daniel's prayer. This invisible war is taking place even now, and we are right in the middle of it. Below this "prince' is the regular, typical demon. The prince could be viewed as a sergeant and the demon as a soldier.

They vie for control of humans, and they know their time is short here on this earth. The prince is the leader or what is referred to as the strong man by Jesus. Jesus had been accused of being of the devil, of satan, rather, and this was his answer, stating that in order to deliver people from bondage, or "plunder his (the demon's) goods, one must first bind the demon.

Matthew 12:28-30

New King James Version (NKJV)

[28] But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. [29] Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. [30] He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

Another reference supports this:

Mark 3:26-28

New King James Version (NKJV)

[26] And if Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. [27] No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

We see then that the strongman is a demon with control over other weaker demons; the strongman is the leader who runs the show. He is the force to attack in spiritual warfare. Most often, there may be two or more in control of a person, and casting out any demons then becomes a more difficult task as a result. The strongman may be in control of many demons, of which there are numerous kinds, all working together through that individual. This is one reason we see radical homosexuals with so many different kinds of perversions and hatred manifesting itself in different ways. Of course, that is not limited to only homosexuals, but these strongholds are common there. We will look at scripture to determine what types of forces are at work and how to attack them. If we are not proactive, we might lose that child.

Case 1

This case is very accurate due to the subject's fascination with the opposite sex, so much so to the point of having a sex change. Martin (1976, p. 228) refers to the victim of possession by the name of Richard/Rita because of the sex change, and we will follow do the same.

Richard found himself attracted to femininity at a very young age, and, at age nine, felt a twinge of sexuality. It was not until this point that he became physically aware of his urge to be or become something that he had not yet identified, but, without fail, he was sure that something alluring was there. And, he pinpoints the unfolding of it all to a certain incident when on vacation that he felt a call as it were from something within the trees around him on a farm in Missouri. There were wisps of something that when he gave into the lure of which awakened him physically, and this, no doubt, was the actual vector of transmission. This was the courting process from the demonic world, one which he gave into and which would alter his life forever by leading him to the precipice of destruction.

Remember this: a demon seeking to overtake a person does not come like in the movies. Why would it? A demon's aim is to capture by consent. It comes in any form to seduce one to move a certain direction. That is exactly what happened with Richard, who later went so far as to have a sex change operation. Richard described years later that he had listened to the wind as if a voice, and in it there was a message connected to the sexual sensations that he had felt that day. He also indicated there was in that message a secret meaning, but it came through words he could not identify (Martin, 1976, p. 233). This a type of inroad, one whereby a person has opened himself up to an answer of some sort, perhaps through loneliness or desire or even both, that a demon uses. Past that, there is usually acceptance from people who suffer the same feelings. Then, in numbers, they form a bond built around deception and demonic practices.

We could view this as the sowing of a demonic seed because it was at that point that he had accepted the influence that would eventually destroy his life. Let's make a further connection and relate this to your child. The inroad so common to hit kids today is through so-called support groups at school. In fact, the Sidwell Friends school in Washington, D.C. where Obama's children go or went (unsure of status now) pushes this same agenda under the guise of Christianity-Quakerism, to be exact. Indoctrination starts at the elementary level and continues through high school. These are the exact types of environments that entertain demonic activity because they open the door just like Richard did.

Richard became obsessed with femininity after that to the point where he eventually became a transsexual: he had a sex change operation. This is oppression taken to the extreme whereby one gives up his own identity completely and takes on the form suggested by the oppressor – the demon. Obsession is a sign of oppression, and that leads to possession. Obsession is a fixation on something, constantly thinking about it. These operate in degrees and can only be dealt with on a spiritual level. People like Katy Perry with her songs about kissing a girl and liking it as well as Christine Aguilera whose song about being beautiful as a cross dresser poison the children. The schools are doing the same. Our recognition is paramount to saving the very souls of our children. We are up against wickedness in high places.

The mere foothold of these abominations is causing a crack in America. Let's move on and see what happened to Richard as a result.

Note: we are not called to take up arms against these spiritual enemies but to vote them out, protest against them peacefully, and vote at every local election, monitor every school board, and every retailer who tries to make a buck off the souls of our children, such as Sears, JC

Penney, Home Depot, and, men, don't buy anything from anyone at the forefront of gay pride parades and other outright perversions. KEEP IT PEACEFUL BUT DO NOT TOLERATE ONE IOTA OF THIS PERVERSION. Definitely, call out these cowards who support such things!

Richard gave into it, and it overtook him. Remember, giving in is the key to seduction. It cannot simply overpower someone. If a person has his foot in the demonic world, though, demonic forces can be so seductive that there is a sway to one's desire that ultimately leads to total possession.

The seduction can be either mental or physical. With Richard, he felt as one with the environment around him. When he felt this as a young boy in the woods, he felt it physically. This specifically was outside. He describes himself as saying "I don't want to leave you. I want to be as you" (Martin, 1976, p. 235). The communication came very subtly, but it was there, connected to the environment around him and manifested physically.

We should already be making connections to contemporary catch phrases that sound good but are rooted in demonic activity and designed to tear down constructs we as Christians are obliged to maintain. The oneness idea sounds like a winner, but it actually means we accept filth and they reject anything moral. We are not one with idol worshipers nor are we one with socialists, pedophiles, or abortionists. Richard's desire to be one with whatever he perceived to be fully knowledgeable was disastrous in that he really had no knowledge at all what was luring him in. He only knew it felt good. In light of that, you yourself should set it up against the phrase Hillary made popular claiming, "it takes a village to raise a child." Never. Do not let them near your child because the aim is to pervert.

Moreover, on a bigger scale, the one world idea promotes unity with the entire world, regardless of its belief system. We are not one, and the oneness that will come sparks the end of the world as we know it.

Richard once again made a trip to the woods as a 17 year old on a camping trip. Alone, he was thrust into the oneness experience and felt an immediate terror that was then subsumed into a soft, alluring inner voice assuring him "I am only secret. Not threat. I don't hurt. I reveal. Do not repel me " (Martin, 1976, p. 236).

He yielded at that point and dropped the alert whistle given in case of danger. Very important here to take heed of Richard's own self awareness of what he had done because it is the very cornerstone of what we fight here-consent.

He was overwhelmed and kept thinking that "I have yielded. I am going against my own training. But I want…I have yielded…" (Martin, 1976, p. 235).

From there, he had no stops in place to prevent a fuller presence and stronger control. They came to him after that point with his full awareness. Martin describes how when yielded "he (Richard) felt surrounded by shapes and presences which had lain dormant up to this point" (1976, p. 236).

His consent had opened the door to the demonic world around him, which means that the demons had a full license to be there. Referring back to the man who now is injured for life because he immediately felt ill to a number of things after inviting his lesbian daughter and her lover onto their property, we see also the demonic presence came by invitation. Quite naturally, the demons will attack those Christians around the people whom have given them authority. Most often, a lukewarm believer will have no idea why s/he is under attack and will even misread the attack as natural sickness. The correlation is staggering. Jesus tells us that demons have the ability to attack and even control thoughts. Therefore, when our loved one comes under the influence of demonic presence, it is mandatory for us to recognize the assailants and employ offensive, spiritual measures such as binding and loosing as well as practical measures like voting and signing petitions. Though Richard was not a devil worshiper when he was first approached by demons, he still was vulnerable because he had absolutely no knowledge of spiritual warfare. His marriage to the devil was the result of being ignorant of the devil's devices.

Jesus told how spirits come against us:

Luke 8:11-15

New King James Version (NKJV)

The Parable of the Sower Explained

11 "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12 Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. 13 But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away. 14 Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15 But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep it and bear fruit with patience.

Jesus clearly describes two methods of attack:

The devil takes the Word out of one's heart. This comes through implanting another word. This is accomplished through the thought life. By speaking to Richard, the demonic world knew that reasoning would be a key factor to the seduction process. Some people give their mind first, and then the body follows. Others give their body first, and then the mind follows. The body first with mind following is the clear explanation of how a God fearing Christian engages in adultery while still believing in God at the same time. But, then he may become involved a in a long term illicit affair that eventually takes everything he has, such as ministry, wife, children, etc…. That could have been avoided had he not been alone with a woman or put himself geographically where he should not be. What is most prevalent in the church today is the first method of satan's seduction. People have become so self-indulgent in their vane thinking that they have opened the door to homosexuals in the church, defying the Word of God. The call it "inclusivity." Recall, this is the catch phrase of the seduction, and it underscores the one world system which marks the end of the world during the tribulation, according to the book of Revelations. In fact, under this one world system, the mark of the beast 666 will be required to buy bread. Those not taking it cannot buy food. Taking it marks damnation. Inclusivity and diversification (in big corporations, see their statement about diversity in the workplace) are dividers in the Great Falling Away (II Thes. 2:3).

Temptation is very easily recognized, so we should expect different devices in satan's onslaught against the human race. Likewise, messengers of satanic doctrine will follow his leading and employ the same approaches. Note how taking away the Word of God (the Bible) and temptation both lead to a falling away from God. Jesus said that! In retrospect, taking away God's Word from the school, the Ten commandments from public places, and rewriting God's very own definition of marriage led to damnation because these are practical applications of what Jesus analogized as satan's tactics. You should have a clear image now of the connections. Against the backdrop of words, then, we know that God's mercy, which is God's Son Jesus who is the Word of God made manifest, countermands judgment, which came by the Mosaic Law, which was God's initial Word, as well. Similarly, God's word implanted in one's heart is also countermanded by the words of satan also implanted in one's heart where they take root. But the Word of God or the corrupted word of satan both require consent to take root. Consent to God's Word invites the Holy Spirit leading to salvation. Consent to satan's seducing words invites demonic spirits leading to eternal damnation and hell on earth during the meanwhile.

Richard, like many other homosexuals, felt as if he had a special gift, as if something-a higher power-had bestowed on him a the gift of homosexuality. By this, he felt empowered, strengthened internally, and emboldened, as if he possessed a knowledge others would never have, at least others outside of his own persuasion.

On his rejection by his wife, (she left him on his honeymoon because of his demonically caused erratic behavior) he was shattered. "But there was something else in its place;. He knew now that he had something new in him, something alive, something alien to him, but now his familiar and cohabitant" (Martin, 1976, p. 249).

Richard's acceptance and even pursuit thereafter of his desires mirrors the slogan today by activist homosexuals "It gets better." That in itself signifies the consent then marriage to dark powers. The process is identical. They also feel superior to the rest of the world, as if they know something everyone else does not. It is the connection to the demonic realm that is manifest through these radical ideas and equally radical behavior. But, the more they give in, the worse they get.

Richard went though stages in his development into and toward full possession. The first stage was the infatuation with androgyny. He still felt enthralled by the oneness of himself with nature, still felt a voice behind the wind, and still felt convinced of the personal relationship he had made with the voice behind the wind. He was giving in more and more. He regularly spent time with prostitutes but not as a man with physical urges to copulate. He felt as if he were on the "sidelines" taking notes on her ability to have multiple orgasms. He was fascinated with her femaleness. Kindly take note: this is an earmark of cross dressers. Though many claim they have no impulse to have sex with another man, they still cross-dress. Their slippery slope into darkness can be viewed just the same as Richard's. They are only deceiving themselves.

Richard's pursuit of freedom through self-indulgence led him to a point of non-Richardness. He was driven by impulses rather than by intellect, by the things around him rather than the intent inside of him. His original intent to reach wholeness had propelled him to a place of insignificant nothingness. Though he acted as if he were free, he was really bound by what he saw and felt. He was locked into a realm where his senses were super heightened and every minute was relegated to fulfilling that drive, by becoming one with what he saw, either through taste or smell or touch. He was no longer in control of anything.

At the peak of his transformation from androgyny to full transgenderism, the next phase, he heard a faint moan as he walked one evening. Behind some bushes, a woman lay helpless, having been previously attacked. In a frenzy, Richard ripped off his clothes and raped her again. In her dying minutes, she stared at him and he soaked it in like nourishment. He looked upon the whole experience as a gift, which brought him to the realization that he must have a sex change operation. In her last minutes, he saw an incredible femaleness, a quality that he wanted to possess. So, he had the operation. But, to his dismay, he never felt that exultation of totality, both man and woman together, the consummation he had hoped to complete before he had had the sex change operation. After the operation he was still dead. His life became one sexual encounter after another. He felt disgust and void afterward. There was no satiety. Such is the case with homosexuality and the foray into abnormality and licentiousness. Of course, that insatiable appetite is not limited to homosexuality, but it is a particular type of demon that makes the approach.

After the operation, Richard met a satanist and went through a ceremony whereby everyone at the party had sex with him. On reflection, Richard had described this time and his actions therein as "animality." He said all pleasure, joy, pleasantness, and beauty were reduced to sexual terms. He would lose the faculties of personhood and be reduced to an animal (Martin, 1976, p. 258). At times, he felt like an "imprint" controlled him. He had a shadow, he called it, a twin self, though separate and distinct. He felt taken care of because this shadow told him what to do or signaled an imprint that mechanized his actions at times; though, at other times, he was self aware, and, at others, somewhat so focused on an action that everything else was "blotted out" (Martin, 1976, p. 259).

Readers, if you or someone you know experiences the same type of sexual impulse, there may be a bigger issue than self-control with which you need to deal. Take note of the patterns discussed here, and apply them to what you see in others or even yourself. This book is designed to help you and the people you know.

Looking at Richard and how he got there, especially his full blown demonic possession, we need to re-examine another catch phrase used by activist homosexuals and homosexual supporters within the church. One particularly blasphemous Socratic ploy is to ask "What would Jesus do?"

Aside from the obvious fact that anyone who supports homosexuality has no idea what Jesus would do, we should address this claim anyway. We are already told to cast them out; have nothing to do with them; do not even eat with such a person. Christians are bound to follow what Jesus commanded and those are His commands. Richard's family supported him; though not so overtly, it was still there. His father spoke to Richard's supervisor at work, securing his continued employment as a transsexual after the operation. When it was time for the exorcism, Richard looked to his family for help. Had they helped in the form of stark and strict refusal to accept Richard's homosexuality, things may have turned out differently. This coincides with the advice given before: cast them out but not away, meaning we never support the homosexuality but accept them alone. There is a strong difference; the same is true with any sin unto death. If the son or daughter is involved with adultery, the other adulterer should not be allowed at your house. Again, this approach leaves the lifeline afloat. Sooner or later, that son or daughter will come back when things go awry.

By giving support through consent at a seemingly difficult time, any parent is actually contributing to worse times down the road. Without a touchstone, there is nothing by which one can gauge himself. It never takes courage to give into temptation; it is a gutless thing to give into the desires that pull at one. Everyone has them in one form or another. That pertains to overeating, females, males, drugs, or anything at all. There is nothing special or innate about homosexuality; the only innateness is that people are born into a sinful world. The spiritual deception is that it is a natural thing. Yes, it is sinful just as two married people committing adultery is, yet homosexuality is even worse as an unnatural attraction designed to tear down tradition and therefore create a new order that contaminates one's relationship to God. The degree of unnaturalness is signified by the ultimate result of God's disgust with certain people through His giving them over to a debased mind (resulting in homosexuality, Romans Ch. 1).

As we see Richard becoming more possessed to the point of being intermittently "blotted out," we also see him losing his concept of the ideal. Whereas earlier Richard had held an ideal of himself obtaining both the best of female and male, the more controlled he became, the more he lost any ideals at all. This reflects the same design today posited by activists and traitorous mental health professionals who push to create a third gender. Many unbalanced parents are stalling in naming the sex of their child. (Yes, I said sex because the term gender is misused and has become a malleable word, applied at will by activists and greedy psychologists seeking to capitalize off the confusion of our young people.)

Richard's Characteristics

Richard began to dress in a suit, and people had no idea if he was a male or a female. This sexless presentation is so typical today that it should send off red flares in anyone trying to figure out what is actually going on. Those pushing the agenda do not want it to be a fad but a lifestyle and consider even the question of male or female a choice to be had by all. Consider this: what type of parent would think that a young prepubescent child would have any idea about choosing to call himself boy or girl? Yet, the new healthcare bill (obamacare) allows for people to have that operation if they so choose, as well as abortion on demand, which could very well be offered at local high schools and even junior high schools if the democratic party has its way. This confusion is an earmark of possession and demonic activity. That is just the beginning, however, of the type of erraticism he portrayed and that is common in homosexuality. Richard also had troubling events with people where confusion followed him wherever he went. But, when not caught in the throes of confusion and dispute, he was charming. But, unpredictable perhaps is a better descriptor. Take note: Martin says, who spent time with Richard and got this all straight from Richard himself, who spoke with the exorcists, and who himself was an exorcist, everything could change so quickly with Richard around due to his "fits" or "trouble" that it was "shocking" (1976, p. 260-263). All of this is characteristic of and underscores the loss of ideal. He was living in himself but controlled by a demon; compare this to the types of behavior we see presently from activist groups, the type of clothes they wear, and the tactics they use to contaminate our children and gain a foothold in the halls of power. Recognition of this comes through spiritual discernment of right and wrong. The pain they feel comes from denying the innate discernment of right and wrong that acts as a check in the spirit. This is why Richard felt the sharp "no" when he consented to demonic influence in the woods. And, no matter what type of laws that are passed, the pain will still be present, but then it affects the whole country. It will be pervasive and legally legitimate, so to speak, but it will never be natural, nor will it be spiritually legitimate. Even Richard denounced it all at the end and said Richard was I born and Richard will I die.

Loss of Ideal

Looking at Richard's loss of ideal, we can set that against the backdrop of today's society and see a definite pattern. Richard had strayed away from normalcy as defined in heterosexuality because he felt he could add to it. His first concern was not to be homosexual or even transsexual. His first lure into possession started from what seemed an innocuous infatuation with femininity. Here is the vector of deception at the core: he wanted to add what he felt was the touchstone qualities of femininity to the touchstone qualities of masculinity and thereby become a fuller individual. To intertwine the two so tightly as to melt them into one being would cause him to be perfect, he thought. One must recognize this as the vector of deception, as I called it, because it is the starting point to the wrong path. Kindly note this in addition: the idea started slowly enough through his admiration of women and their graceful movement. It stood in stark contrast to the simple brusqueness of men. Again, his original idea was to add the grace of femininity to his maleness.

Any satanic deception will come in some form like this. It deceives by tearing down walls that are meant to be there. The most common examples deceive through definitions. For instance, Americans murder more than one million babies every year-1700 per day-by calling them non-human. By defining them as simply "mass" or "undeveloped" or "inconvenient" or "unwanted," America kills enough children every year to make up the city of Dallas. Dallas-wiped off the map! The satanic deception brought this about in the name of freedom. See the parallel: by defining this murder under the guise of the right to privacy, the term "privacy" overrode the term "life," and hence we have murder at 9 months' gestation. Bill Clinton signed that into law by decree. It is happening as you read this. The small, seemingly unimportant deceptions through "words' and their definitions have wiped out a population of innocent children the equivalent of the entire city of Dallas in just the past year. That has happened year after year. Gone…and thrown into a trash bin or sold to be spread on someone's face in a cream.

Richard experienced the same deception. In his mind, he reasoned and reasoned until it took him to a world of orgies and full demonic possession. But, the start was easy and tempting and alluring. Sin is pleasurable for a season, but the time always comes to pay up. That is why the wages of sin are death. The murder of our children in the womb started as allowable up to 8 weeks and then 10 and now at 9 months, though some states have started to rewrite the laws. Labor is induced and the child is murdered at birth. In 2006, the Supreme Court ruled that this same murder is allowable as long as the child is out of the vagina no further than the navel. Is this what our country has become? Yes! Murder at 9 months is fully acceptable as long as the child is killed by the time the baby is at its navel upon exit from the mother. Don't be bullied or intimidated by people pointing a finger at you and saying "bigot" or "hater" or "phobic!"

Point back and say: Murderer! Blasphemer!

I will admit it: I hate the murder of our children and the perversion of our society.

See the trend? Your children are next.

Further Descent into Possession

Richard had "fits" and "trouble" that seemed to suck in anyone around him. Confusion followed him like dog dookey stuck on his shoe. Eventually, two of his brothers noticed that he had deeper problems they perceived to be spiritually based. They sought counseling which turned out to be fruitless and finally decided to meet with a priest. One tell-tale marker was the quickness with which Richard could change from such a seemingly friendly person to a venomous one, spewing words that cut to the bone, finally culminating in his termination from work. The relationship Richard experienced with others again characterizes the relationship between an oppressed person and those around him, especially the further s/he draws into deeper possession.

Note this: Richard was syrupy nice one minute, perhaps even charming, and then the next, he was quarrelsome. A quarrelsome environment swirled around him, and when he left the area, so did the problems and misunderstandings. Later, as we discuss the different types of spirits, we will understand more why this is the case.

The way in which he interacted with others, however, was a symptom in which he viewed himself. As he had lost his ideal and hence there was no touchstone of good or bad, male or female, as the two were intertwined into oneness, so also was his relationship with others. He had turned inside himself so much because the demonic influence had captured bit by bit his free will, and everything was a here and now experience. His sense of passion that was heightened at first encounter with the demonic world was now deadened to the point where it needed to be fed constantly, and this feeding was physical, yet there is a type of demonic influence that appears to enlarge one's cognitive awareness but likewise only enslaves its human participant to servitude and relegates him to arrogance and pomposity. This stems from a strong man of lies, a sergeant demon that controls others demons, one of which is homosexuality.

If we were to explain the position of self in the possessed, we would behoove ourselves to get back to the words of the author specifically, who was a renowned author and exorcist, as well as an earned Ph.D. holder twice over:

Metaphorically speaking, in possession a mirror is held up in which the self of the possessed sees only itself in itself in itself in itself and so on…And this awareness is, by definition, complete and unending solitude" (Martin, 1976, p. 261).

This sheds light on a number of things. First, we see how Richard's promiscuity takes shape and why. Solitude is a stimulus that leads people into dark activity, and so it did with Richard. Second, we also see feeling alienated spurs people into congregating with others who engage in the same activity. The bitter and languid existence that follows causes people like Richard to cry out in any form for acceptance and recognition. As we know, however, even this cannot take away their pain. Never. Like with Richard, it only promotes social upheaval and confusion.

Recently, a perfect example of this type of confusion emerged in the Presbyterian church, which voted down a proposal that could have led to homosexual marriage within the church. One dullard was quoted as saying he did not understand why the Presbyterian church could not perform marriage between monogamous homosexuals, especially having already baptized a young boy who was currently involved with another man. Think, and this man is supposed to be spiritually mature enough to lead others? He will lead them straight to hell. These are the leaders that we must cast out, and this whole ordeal should be a wake-up call to that church. The Oklahoma Indian Nations Presbytery has been plagued with problems. This attitude is the reason why. A man of leadership within the church, and he has the audacity to make such an ignorant claim! No understanding and no knowledge of the Bible tells us everything we need to know about him and the church's problems. He should in fact be removed from office. The proposal never should have been brought up for a vote. Never been entertained. Take note: this is the style of demonic confusion so domineering in Richard. It is pure, simple, and easy to see. Those operating in the flesh and with no knowledge of the Word fall for it and corrupt others in the process. Remember: the Bible has told us as we have already seen that we must cast out these false teachers. Oklahoma Indian Nations Presbytery, purge your leadership.

Splitting with the teachings of the Bible has been the fulcrum to leverage the whole movement to homosexualize America. England is the perfect example of where America could end up in the very near future. King Henry VIII declared himself above the church when the Pope refused to give him a divorce. His arrogance and betrayal to the church has carried down through the government such that the same English government is trying to force the Anglican Church to perform homosexual marriages. His seed of disobedience has betrayed his own church centuries later. Again, total confusion prevails in the name of freedom and under the guise of democracy and equal rights. We know the history of Henry VIII. Now we see his legacy. The country is broke and overrun with third world immigrants. It has no military power whatsoever, and the morality of the people is at its lowest, with fewer people getting married, homosexuality protected by law, and a stronghold in the societal fabric, pedophilia legalized with 16 as the age of consent, and their last bastion of hope is the Christian morals of those who refuse to give in.

America, the same type of leadership, the same type of demonic influences, that brought England to the edge of doom is at power in America as I write this. The only answer is to REFUSE. Refuse to assist in abortions. Refuse to perform homosexual marriages. Refuse to allow homosexual teachings at your local elementary schools. Refuse to buy from Home Depot or J.C. Penney's or Sears or Tom and Jerry's or have anything to do with anyone or anything tainted.

Furthermore, picture this: any church that allows homosexuals to attend there is selling indulgences. Any preacher that supports homosexuality in any form, whether by attending a homosexual wedding, having a support group, ordination, or recognizing tendencies as normal is selling indulgences.

A lady at the Presbyterian vote that vetoed performing homosexual marriages said she ached and her heart poured out for the homosexuals in the church. Admirable-yes, but certainly misguided sympathy. Would you say the same thing about a married woman with children who cheated on her husband with another married man with children? No, of course not. Would you lament her pain when she cried and said God wanted them to be together? No, of course not. We know the Bible says it is wrong. And, if they were in your church, then how much more would you say that she herself knew that it was wrong? Yet, the analogy is the same: sin is sin. There is no justification. No support system. Even the check in their spirit tells them that it is wrong. But to sell the indulgence in the name of unity is actually selling death, and it is only a matter of time before the whole thing blows up. Again, sin is pleasurable only for a season. Therefore, don't ache for these people but rather educate them. Tough love, James Dobson calls it. If you really love them, you will never make a deal. The priest who sold an indulgence loved the person to whom he sold it only as much as he loved the filthy lucre in his pocket. Martin Luther who gave up everything so that he could save their souls had real love, and that was evident through his own sacrifice. Shall we trade in the souls of our children for people who will cry out against us, knowing that they will perish anyway? Never! To whom much is given, much is required. That is you.

Don't be fooled by the appearance and the sweetness of a homosexual because the charm is deceptive, just as the charm of sin is. Richard had the ability to charm people, and he vacillated between fits and charm. Even on the day of his exorcism, he was so charming and so convincing of his innocence that the exorcist almost backed out at the last minute. Richard's effusive femininity and soft manner displayed a veneer of vulnerability that almost succeeded in convincing the exorcist to call off the exorcism, yet the exorcist was too experienced to fall for it. Kindly note: this is one reason that so many women support homosexuality. They fall for the appearance of vulnerability and feel compelled to protect homosexuals, in essence feeling superior to them. However, these same women invite trouble into their own houses and a spirit that attaches itself to them because, after all, it has been invited. This leaves their own houses vulnerable to kindred spirits of adultery that attack the husbands and homosexual spirits that attack the children. The same demon attacks through adultery and homosexuality.

Though Richard was amiable at the arrival of the priest, he instantly became aggressive and berated the priest verbally. At the mention of Jesus, Richard stiffened and lay flat on his back. "His face was not a picture of tears and sorrow as they had all expected but a writhing mass of hate, fear, and disgust" (Martin, 1976, p. 269).

This dramatic change was the real force motivating Richard whereas only minutes before Richard had wailed and sobbed uncontrollably, heaving and shaking. This is highly characteristic of this particular type of demon because it seeks to evoke sympathy and create an atmosphere of acceptance through emotion. It manifests itself through adulteresses, as well. A maneuver they use is to ingratiate themselves to people through service. But, as with Richard, trouble soon follows, because the problem is embedded within the social environment, the sources of problems they create are hard to pinpoint.

Another angle of attack from this type of demon comes through the service aspect. When impropriety is discovered, people tend to overlook it because so much service has been performed on the part of the possessed so as to warrant sweeping any problem under the rug, so to speak. It is fairly common to take the approach such as 'Well so and so has done so much good that we can just forget about it.' This is certainly the case with adulteresses. Many people who want to overlook the adultery may have their own secrets to hide and therefore do not want to get involved. These demons of adultery and homosexuality are operating under the same leadership, which we will see later in the book.

It is a misconception that the possessed cannot and will not refer to God. During the exorcism, Richard actually grabbed the crucifix at one point and swore to the priest that he wanted to be whole and "right with God." But, just minutes later, Richard was talking to the priest about things only demons would know. Angels will not speak of evil. But, demons have supernatural knowledge of people's sin. The demon began to assail the fact that the priest was a virgin. After hours of playing verbal games, the demon finally spoke to the priest and acknowledged he in fact was present. This is the game-to hide. If the demonic presence gives away his identity, he loses. But, at that point, it was a face off, and the demon wanted the priest to know there would definitely be a fight. Remember, this was now the demon's home by invitation. He had full possession. Again, after hiding to the point where the exorcism team had almost questioned if Richard actually were possessed, the demon responded. The shutters shook. The wallpaper on the ceiling tore off as if some fingers were peeling it off. The priest was thrown across the room and slammed against the wall by this invisible force (Martin, 1976, p. 273).

The priest had touched the core. If this type of approach had been taken at the beginning, rather than to agree with Richard's affliction, the whole scenario might have been completely different. Now, the enemy wants us to take the same course of acceptance and facilitation that Richard's family had taken with him. We see the result: complete demonic possession. And what happened during the course of that possession? Orgies, cutting off his penis, loss of everything.

As I stated before, to cut off perfectly healthy genitalia for the cause of making something healthy should seem completely irrational, and it is. That defies common sense and every natural instinct for survival. If one is not happy, mutilating his body will certainly never bring happiness. More importantly, how can a doctor who is supposed to help condone such a thing? He himself needs psychological help for merely supporting such activity in the name of psychological science. The psychologists in these cases are only adding to the problem. Sadly though, they have been hailed as heroes simply because they have spent 20 years sitting in a classroom. Of course, they want the notoriety and the wealth. Consider the abortionist George Tiller who murdered an estimated 60, 000 unborn children in the name of freedom. He did it for money. At anywhere from $200-$1500, he had all the motivation he needed to plead the cause. These psychologists who support mutilation like Richard underwent are likewise guilty of giving their victims a silver bullet after they have already cashed their victims' checks. Providing a name for the deception that people like Richard have given themselves over to can never legitimate these psychologists' actions just like the law can never legitimate George Tiller's full scale war on children.

The same deadly, prideful spirit works in all of these people. When pressed to give its name, the demon answered "Rita" …"I'm not ordinary," after weeks of pressing, the demon revealed its name as "Girl-fixer." This particularly points out a specific entity possessing the soul of Richard as well as the source of alienation. Richard felt superior to heterosexuals, and recall that this was his original quest- to have the knowledge of both world-male and female. But, this was the vacuum of the demonic deception, what had sucked him into the relentlessness of nothingness. He was completely dead inside after that, and his whole existence became a search for satiety. Here, the demonic deception creeps into the church through gullible Christians who have absolutely no knowledge of the Word: they seem to think that monogamous homosexuality should be condoned by the church. Those sympathizers are either completely ignorant of the Word or traitors to Jesus. Of course, the third group would be those who never believed in Jesus to begin with, and that group of sympathizers are operators of satan who are easily identifiable by their campaigning for homosexuality in the church.

Note that I said after "weeks of pressing, the demon revealed its name as Girl-fixer." Yes, "weeks" were involved in the exorcism. This signifies the deep root which the demon had over Richard. That reflects the stronghold that satan has over people when they consent. In Richard's case, it was total possession. Of course, with that consent, there must be one stronger than he to overtake him. This is why the Bible calls this type of demon a "strongman." But, Richard had to become a willing participant in the exorcism for it to be successful. See what Jesus says about the strongman or the controlling demon.

<< Mark 3:27 >>

Parallel Translations

New International Version (©1984)
In fact, no one can enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can rob his house.

New Living Translation (©2007)
Let me illustrate this further. Who is powerful enough to enter the house of a strong man like Satan and plunder his goods? Only someone even stronger--someone who could tie him up and then plunder his house.

Demon has a Name

The extraordinary length of time came due to the strength of the type of demon. Further, we also see the demon had a name. The name is significant because it tells the demon's assignment, as well. The demon said " We fix em. All sorts of girls. Young, old, unmarried, lesbians, neuters. Girls who want to be fixed. Those who want to be fixed like girls. Anyone. We fix em" (Martin, 1976, p. 282).

The demon had planted the seed in Richard and waited for the perfect time to attack, cultivating it over time. It had seduced Richard into a certain mindset, then provided the physical pleasures to sate his desires, which was the attack. But, it was unending, and it led Richard to a void, a nothingness, the deepest blackness on earth. He was completely helpless to fight against it. This is the exact point many homosexuals are at today. They all get there at some point. But the ones who still are redeemable understand and feel pricked by their condition. This is why we hear people say they have prayed for deliverance but have given up because they still have the desires. They finally give in and then tell the world that God created them like that. This is the biggest deception of all because, were it true, they would have never felt the pain that the unnaturalness that only a sin against nature could bring. They then pray to justify the behavior rather than be delivered from it. The same scenario is true with heterosexuals involved in illicit adultery. They do not want to give up their lover, and they eventually say that God wanted them to be together. The Bible, therefore, is very adamant about ejecting these people from the church because the sin is unconfessed; the sinners are unrepentant; and the sin is still present. It consequently affects others around them. To accept these people in the church is to go directly against the Word of God. If that is true with the naturalness of heterosexual couples, how much more so with the unnaturalness of homosexuals?

Please note: unconfessed does not mean that one does not admit the sin; it means that the sin has not been confessed to God as a sin and that the sinner has not asked for forgiveness.

Therefore, the sin still exists. To confess your faults [sins] one to another (James 5:16), therefore, does not mean to go to another person and spill your guts. It means confess one sin to another sin to another and so forth. Every time you sin, go to God and confess it and ask for forgiveness.

Moreover, we have also seen that what was outwardly charming to those people around Richard was actually demonic and life threatening. Referring again to the lady whose heart "ached" for the homosexuals in her church, she was half way to deception. Although she said her heart "ached" (her words) for them, she also knew what the Bible says about homosexuality. Had she not spent time in the Word, she would be completely deceived. This is the dividing line between professed Christians who do things in the name of unity and real Christians who do things in the name of Jesus. Therefore, we can plainly see that sympathizers are never grounded in the Word. The verse is true then that they learn but never come to the knowledge of God (2 Tim. 3:7). The words may be in their heads but not in their hearts' and they walk with demons and not with God. Even satan can disguise himself as an angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14). The bottom line is this: the lady's knowledge of the Word of God saved her from total deception. She ached because she was around them too much, which is contrary to the Word of God (we saw this above), but she came to her senses by referring back to what she had been taught. Never forget: it is the sympathy angle that this demon plays. There can be no friendship, no fellowship, no fraternization, and no entertainment with homosexuals. The only exception to that is with a family member whose soul is in your hands. You might be the only link to his/her salvation. That would only come through your insistence in standing on God's Word no matter what. This is the acid test-the final proof for those whose heart has become so hard that it has been seared as if with a hot iron and is incapable of feeling. They scoff at the Lord or blaspheme His name by claiming to be "not ordinary' or blessed with homosexuality. If God in His mercy decides to pluck these people from the depths of hell, it may be you and only you who can save them by your witness and your example. But, that will never be possible if you give in and accept their homosexuality. The trade is very simple: Give in to their homosexuality and they lose their souls for eternity, or stand firm on God's Word and plead the blood of Jesus for their salvation and save their souls for eternity. Don't be influenced by their claims that you will lose them forever if you do not accept their homosexuality. Even if they go away for a year or even two or perhaps longer, that is nothing compared to knowing that you contributed to the loss of their souls forever. Should God desire their souls, He will intervene and eventually lead them to a dry place where all they have put their trust in is gone. It might be then and only then that they will listen to you and then the scales will fall from their eyes. They will see then that you have stood on God's Word and God never let you down. This is the example that God wants you to be. Giving in to sin only leads to death.

Once again, we see that the consent by Richard was the deciding factor along with the support from his family. Rejection by Richard's family may have saved him from his ordeal. We also see that the demon had a name and a specific mission intended for Richard. The deception came at a young age wherein Richard became fascinated with femininity of women. He himself did not feel attracted to men at first, but the perversion or the twisted thinking mutated or devolved into that. Eventually, he was overwhelmed by it and driven by mere tactility. Like a child entering the deep end of a pool, he did not know he was in danger until the water was over his head, and he had no footing at all, which would be the belief in the blood of Jesus.

Closing Richard's case, we can so easily see the deception by which Richard was entangled being taught our children today. And who is doing this? …of course, the same instruments of satan. They come in the form of teachers and administrators who say the exact same thing that we will see come from the demon girl fixer that Richard had invited to deceive him.

The exorcist said to the demon "Evil spirit, in the name of Jesus, announce the trap in which you caught Richard/Rita…."

Demon Admits How They Possessed Richard

The demon answered, "We start with self-growth, self-discovery. We tell 'em, we told Rita: First, you must be yourself, find yourself, know who you are. They stick their noses in their own navels and say: I like my own smell. Then, that woman alone, is the one thing to be. She has it all within her, but man has it all hanging out."

"To be a woman is to be completely independent, we tell them. No guilt. Not masculine. Not feminine. Complete in herself. Cunt and clit in one. Androgynous. Free of guilt feelings, of all responsibility."

Then…then…the same old trap we've taken many in-we still catch them in. That they fuck as necessarily as birds sing, as water flows, as the fire burns. Merely to show how independent they are. That if they don't breathe for fucking, live for fucking, sing in fucking, they can't breathe, cry, sing, love, or do anything. Be liberated. That's what they begin to say. Man, woman, or goat, little boy, or if it comes to that, little girl. And when Rita got there-Oeeeeeeeeeeeh!" (Martin, 1976, p. 289-291).

Dear people, please note that this is the exact approach that our children are being taught today in gender discovery classes that promote homosexuality and by sympathizers who push the same agenda in churches. The truth was spoken directly form a demon under duress by the name of Jesus Christ. The demon cannot lie and cannot resist under the power of Jesus, the incarnate Word of God the Father.

It is a process and begins with an invitation to heresy and then a confession by the possessed of homosexuality. That process is at work now attacking your family.

This confirms the homosexual deception and the association with satanic powers. The question is, what are you going to do about it? Sometimes, you just have to fight.

So, we have learned some vital points from Richard's case. First, this total captivity comes from consent. There must be a temptation, giving in to the temptation, then a full consent that leads to total captivity. Second, we must run interference to protect our loved ones. Richard's family was cooperative. Let's make a distinction: you do not have to be supportive to be cooperative.

Cooperation comes in many forms, such as looking the other way; sympathizing; or simply remaining passive. This is what Richard's family did on all counts in addition to being supportive. That added fuel to the fire. Make no mistake: demons have the ability to see your fatigue. They hear your conversations that express defeat and sympathy. Stand fast. Your child's soul depends on you. This is your role as a parent and a friend and a sibling. This is how Hitler took Germany; the people were passive, and then he started murdering people in the streets.

Just yesterday, the FRC, a Christian group was attacked by a pro-homosexual, pro-abortion left winger with a pack of ammunition, armed, and ready to kill. This is a direct result of the indoctrination of groups like the Southern Poverty Law Center classifying Christian organizations as hate groups. Thank Jesus, the assailant was disarmed by a courageous Christian whom the assailant had already shot. Who is the hate group now? Arm yourselves. It is legal. Stay legal. Stay peaceful but be prepared. The forced perversion of your children is just as serious as the issue of slavery that divided our nation. Yes, forced is the key term here. And, it will get a whole lot nastier. Capitulation is never the answer. It did not work for England with Hitler nor with the Germans with Hitler. The more we sit idly by, the more children are slaughtered on the altars of freedom and perverted under the guise of human rights.

When parents are dragged away in handcuffs for protesting their children being taught that homosexuality is normal, that is being forced. Newsflash: we will never submit.

In "What Same Sex Marriage Did to Massachusetts," we learn the following:

In 2007 a federal judge ruled that because of "gay marriage" in Massachusetts, parents have no rights regarding the teaching of homosexual relationships in schools. The previous year the Parkers and Wirthlins had filed a federal civil rights lawsuit to force the schools to notify parents and allow them to opt out their elementary-school children when homosexual-related subjects were taught. The federal judge dismissed the case. The appeals judges later upheld the first judge's ruling that because same-sex marriage is legal in Massachusetts, the school actually had a duty to normalize homosexual relationships to children; and schools have no obligation to notify parents or let them opt out their children.

Think about that: Because same-sex marriage is "legal," federal judges have ruled that the schools now have a duty to portray homosexual relationships as normal to children, despite what parents think or believe!

The judges also allowed the school to overrule the Massachusetts parental notification law on this issue, with the claim that homosexuality or same-sex marriages are not "human sexuality issues" (to which the law refers) (Camenker, 2008).

In the last quote from Hostage to the Devil, we saw the demon answered that in the name of freedom, the possessed was to copulate with anything: "Man, woman, or goat, little boy, or if it comes to that, little girl."

Threesome and group marriages will be next on the agenda. After all, if homosexuality were against the law and then was reversed and same sex marriage was legalized, why not group marriage? Is it not discrimination to disallow practicing Mormons the right to marry multiple wives? …or even multiple husbands for that matter? What is the difference? There is no difference. None. Is it not even religious discrimination to disallow that? What makes the homosexuals any better than anyone else? Nothing. After all, it is just as easy to make that legal too. Right?

The exorcist asked the demon, "At what point in time did Rita give over possession to you? When was it consummated?

"In the snow. In the wind. We knew then we could find a place in him. Bend him to our will, But he had invited years before…" (Martin, 1976, p. 291).

Note the phrase, "Bend him to our will." That bending only took what the Bible calls a foothold. The foothold is just a mere giving in to a sinful thought, and that may be from sympathizing, disregarding, or even having a lustful thought, which is by far the most dangerous.

"Do not give the devil a foothold" (Ephesians 4:27).

We have a tactic and that is to simply refuse: Refusal comes in every form: refusing to let it in one the television, through magazines, internet, people, conversations, and, of course, through the school system, through activist judges who rule in the court room by day and commit perversions at home by night. If they had a chance at molesting your child, they would certainly do it. They would simply make it legal by lowering the age of consent like England did. A boy is an older homosexual's trophy. That legality will be next, as well. Again, making it legal does not make it right. Therefore, we must block, refuse, and react at every turn to reverse these laws and remove the enemy.

Is murdering a 9 month baby inside the womb right? It goes on every single day. And, it is legal. Women induce labor and then murder that sweet innocent child by the time the navel is at the vagina-that IS perfectly legal. But, it is still MURDER.

Tell me this: how can a man who performs fellatio and gets screwed in the anus have any idea of right and wrong? We see what his idea of right and wrong actually is. He has automatically disqualified himself from any input at all in what happens with my family. That should be the case with your family, too.

See, the demons recognized early on that they could have Richard completely. Again, note the words: "But he had invited years before."

There must be an invitation or else the attack is an oppression. Evil forces will still come. That is their job. We have power to resist and even be victorious in the face of any temptation:

1 Peter 5:8-10

New King James Version (NKJV)

[8] Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. [9] Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world. [10] But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.

Again, these demons are looking for targets; willing targets are the best because it requires less work. But, we are told that satan will flee:

"Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you" (James 4:7).

Later in the book, we will deal with the specific tactics of how to fight spiritually and why these things have come upon you and your family. Regarding the why, the answer is found in these cases specifically. One answer so far is the invitation or the consent of those people possessed or afflicted.

But the demons may be present because someone else has invited them. This is why we cannot allow homosexuals to come into our homes nor can we befriend them. There are spirits that attach themselves to people or stay in the family awaiting opportunity to attack.

Case 2

A man told a pastor at a revival that his great grandparents had practiced magic and his grandparents also were involved in medium activities. The grandmother suffered from depression and psychic disturbances. She was eventually committed to a mental hospital. The problems continued in the next generation with the man's parents who eventually gave their lives over to Jesus Christ. With this conversion, their problems stopped immediately but then continued once again with their son. As a child, he was plagued with depression, but he himself also gave his life to Jesus and was delivered completely. However, problems reappeared with his son. This is why he approached the pastor. Be aware that the attacks from the demonic realm now existed for five generations. Even with the people turning everything over to Jesus, the demons returned again and again to try to find their original place.

That activity is supported directly by scripture:

Matthew 12:43-45

New King James Version (NKJV)

An Unclean Spirit Returns

[43] "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. [44] Then he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. [45] Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

Again, it was five generations now that the family had been plagued. Yes, they do come back. The man's son was normal until the age of 18 when he started to have bouts of depression. This escalated into fits of rage when he attacked his parents. He would leave the house for days on end and wander about the woods. Things got worse as he began to hear noises in the house, hear voices that told him not to obey his parents, and see lights. He was diagnosed as an "incurable high-grade schizophrenic" who needed to be committed to an asylum. The father instead took him to friends for prayer, and he was later put into a Christian convalescent home where he was completely delivered. It took weeks of prayer, but he was totally delivered (Koch, 1962, p. 162-164).

Although the demons did not have the right by consent to be there, they nevertheless tried to take up residence. This is the direct result of the great grandparents' consent and involvement with magic. Once demons know a family, it is a war and one in which there may be countless battles. This is oppression.

But, remember, "You are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world" (I John 4:4).

Sometimes, you have to fight. If the father who told the story had not fought, his son would have died in an asylum as an "incurable high-grade schizophrenic." Compare that to a psychologist who says about your own child Let him experience his own sexuality. Que sera sera, whatever will be, will be…is what that idiot is telling some poor parent.

And in the dark corner behind the building with a little boy he picked up off the street, he does what he should be in jail for…that idiot psychologist or teacher or sympathizer. Think about it. What does he know? I mean, really, think about it very hard…. Had the father listened to the so-called expert psychologist, his son would have been gone forever. Instead, the son went on to lead a productive life as the chief construction engineer of a large firm. Also, be advised that your actions now will affect your children and grandchildren, too. It could lead to anything down the road including more sadistic forms of sexual behavior. That could end up in prison or wherever the demon takes it if there is no intervention from you. It only takes one person to lose or win a war. But, you cannot remain silent. Furthermore, watch out who you listen to…preachers, friends, experts etc. See what God has to say about it first. Pick up your Bible. If anyone at all has anything to say against what you read in the Bible, tune him out and kick him out. You have your position for a reason and should you fail to act within the scope of your assignment as mother, father, sibling, or Christian, you will be severely chastised for it by God Almighty Who died for your sins, and you will live to regret it. It is your responsibility.

Don't forget what Paul said:

14 And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. 15 It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve (II Corinthians 11: 14-15).

That tells us who the homosexual supporters actually are, such as psychologists, school teachers, administrators, judges - satan's servants who masquerade as servants of righteousness.

Case 3

Be aware that in case 2, direct contact with the occult invited demons. They stuck around even when they were not wanted. So, how much more will they persist if someone actually courts them? This is why we often see more than one homosexual in the family. Activist homosexuals use that fact of two homosexuals in a family to posit the idea of a homosexual gene, claiming they were born that way. In reality, the demonic influence in the family is so strong that it has seduced more than one member. If one were to investigate, he would find somewhere along the ancestry, the demonic presence had been invited, and the family fell prey, perhaps even for generations. That is what we just saw in case two.

A theological student told a preacher that he had been having visions of Jesus at night but felt fear when it happened. The preacher told him that fear is not what he should feel and began to question the student about any occult practice in the family. The student admitted that his mother and grandmother were active spiritists and practiced glass-moving (Koch, 1962, p. 100). This underscores the scripture above that says satan (or one of his followers) will come as an angel of light.

Since that is true in the spiritual world, the same manifestation of that same evil is also true in the physical world.

This case deals with one of the most respected exorcists in the world, and it is not a case of possession but of oppression. I am including this to demonstrate another aspect of demonic influence. Be sure that there two sides: the attractive and the hideous. The attraction comes in the form of temptation, and this is the appealing side realized through sex, money, power etc., but the other side includes what we have looked at already, for instance sickness, mental disturbances and the like.

Kindly note: this is where most psychologists would fall. They are lured by the attraction of fame, praise, money etc. so perverting your child means nothing to them.

But, Father Syquia has been a lifeline to hundreds of people;

Fr. Jose Francisco C. Syquia, Director of the Archdiocese of Manila Office of Exorcism, writes in Exorcism: Encounters with the Paranormal and the Occult that he was unsure what to do with his life but entertained the idea of becoming a psychologist. I must interject here that he has been trained in the field and therefore does stand as one of the most respected authorities in the world because of his training in both psychology and religious studies. His complete training has given him the ability to test the people he works with on both levels, unlike secular psychologists who further pervert patients with homosexual feelings by prodding them into following their feelings. Fr. Syquia has the academic and religious credentials to understand both camps regarding mental disturbances. Before starting the university, he began to read as many self help books as he could get his hands on as well as books on parapsychology.

He says, "The danger was that I did not know where parapsychology, which is a science, ended and the occult, which deals with demonic powers, started. There is a thin line that divides the two and I unknowingly crossed it. As I look back now, there was something that seemed missing in my life (which I now know to be God) and I thought that this void could be filled up by the excitement of the paranormal. Within a few weeks, the readings started opening up my psyche to fear and terror. Demonic harassment came through my dreams" (Syquia, 2006, 18-19).

Notice that he had opened an avenue for demonic harassment (oppression). More importantly, note exactly what that avenue was: the mind. His pursuit of knowledge just like Richard's led him to seek out knowledge. Of course, seeking knowledge is an excellent pursuit, but he went down the wrong path. In addition, he bought books to demons had attached themselves. Yes, demonic powers attach themselves to things. Let's see how he describes it.

"Demons showed themselves to me in horrifying forms and their mere appearance brought terror to the very depths of my being. These terrifying creatures would pin me down and suffocate me little by little."

Further, he writes "I had become a target of demonic forces ….Later, I was able to confirm through my readings that this was one of many ways by which demons harass persons who have created an opening to their influence. I also remember that when I lent these books to others, they would suddenly have similar experiences to mine" (Syquia, 2006, 19).

So, we see then that there was an attachment. Keep in mind, the main aim is usually to seduce people rather than to terrorize. Why the different types of attack? A demon will seduce someone he can have. Father Syquia, though he had opened up the portal, still belonged to Jesus. He had already been sealed by the Holy Spirit. However, he unknowingly opened up that entry for demons. That was their territory, and he crossed over into it. Nevertheless, he was still God's property, and the demons knew it.

"And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption" (Ephesians 4:12).

The seal is a sign that tells the spirit world who you are. Should demons come and pick a fight with you, they know they will lose-unless they are invited. Likewise, your house must have a protective covering over it. If you are a Christian and your child is in the other room watching pornography, that pornography is an entry point for demonic activity, especially any type of homosexual entertainment.

We have already seen that many homosexuals are most likely "turned over" by God. Yet, at which point one is turned over completely, we do not know. Consequently, we never stop praying and interceding for our loved ones, but we do not associate with people professing homosexuality: they most likely have already been turned over to satan.

But, countless homosexuals have also been healed and restored and even married to someone of the opposite sex. Don't give up.

Still, we must plead the blood of Jesus over our family; confess the Word of God; and speak it out loud. These are the weapons of our warfare. We know that we don't wrestle against flesh and blood:

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12).

Because of that, our warfare is a different type. Fr. Syquia was a Christian at the young age when he was harassed, but he had no knowledge of his weapons of warfare. He believed in Jesus but there was no personal relationship with Him. Fr. Syquia put himself in a vulnerable place, into enemy territory, out of ignorance of the Word. This is why he is so effective now; now he knows the truth. Plus, because he is trained in the secular psychological side and the Biblical side, his foundation in faith supports his ministry of exorcism, and it is facilitated by his secular training. However, simple faith in Jesus as one's Lord and Savior is not enough to effectively wage spiritual warfare; there must be these four things: pleading the blood of Jesus over our family; confessing the Word of God; and speaking it out loud; binding and loosing.

We already looked at binding and loosing at an earlier part of this book.

Jesus said: "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven" (Matthew 16:19).

I literally stand in awe of that promise –which was made directly by Jesus. It gives us authority over demons which have control over this realm. You, too, must exercise your authority to protect your family and claim deliverance of your loved ones. Jesus called them "the keys of the kingdom of heaven."

How much does He love us! To die for us and then give us the keys to the kingdom of heaven! We can lock and unlock things.

Another lesson learned: be careful what you pick up. These books were linked to the demonic realm. Movies, music, and people can have the same effect. Recall, wherever Richard went, trouble followed. Confusion erupted everywhere he was. It has become a fad now with many radio stations to play international music. A lot of the music is in a foreign language. One such station I am thinking of plays Indian music (from India, the playground of demons). An Indian Christian acquaintance tells me many of the Indian song lyrics refer to gods and their influences on love affairs. If that is true, and the beat is appealing, and you catch yourself singing along, what effect can you expect?

One of the rock band Queen's songs ended with the declaration "nothing really matters to me." Think of the portent of that. Freddie Mercury's life of debauchery and sad demise is public knowledge; His death is the result of how he thought and how he lived. In fact, people like him stand as examples of what not to do and what not to think. Consider this then: listening to this song over and over would be like a continual charm pulling a teenager into the same mindset with no values and thinking nothing matters at all. Likewise, consider a teenager walking around singing that he is on the highway to hell. What is the effect? What did God say about our words?

"I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him" (Is. 57:14).

"Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof" (Proverbs 18:21).

Four Things for Spiritual Warfare

These two scriptures are principles of the world: they can work for good or bad. Essentially, we as Christians use this principle of sowing and reaping when we bind and loose, sow the Word, and cast out demons. Again, to effectively wage spiritual warfare, there must be these four things: pleading the blood of Jesus over our family; confessing the Word of God; speaking it out loud; and binding and loosing.

But, the converse is true if we confess the opposite. Confessing death brings death. It is the same spiritual principle but it works to accomplish death rather than life. That is the reason why homosexual activists get the kids to say out loud that they are homosexual; it is an effort to brings those things into existence. Even idiots that know absolutely nothing at all about Jesus our Lord know there is a connection between what we speak and what we get/have. God formed the universe like this:

"As it is written, I have made you a father of many nations, before him whom he believed, even God, who gives life to the dead, and calls those things which are not as though they were" (Rom. 4:17).

One tenet of Alcoholics Anonymous is to have the members always confess "I am an alcoholic." The idea is a good one because it reminds them not to relapse but the effect can be even worse than the relapse. To declare full scale 100% deliverance gives the glory to God and one still knows he can never pick it up again. Picking it up again would be an insult to God. To constantly declare that one is an alcoholic certainly keeps one in remembrance that slipping into the former behavior is a possibility, but it never claims deliverance. One confession is to total deliverance, and the other is to chains.

Likewise, homosexuals who have been delivered by the blood of Jesus Christ claim deliverance but also know they can never ever return to that lifestyle, not even one encounter. They can truly be delivered from that one temptation because they have been delivered from the bondage of sin. This is true with anything at all: smoking, drinking, women, men, overeating, and pornography, heterosexual, homosexual, stealing, worry, stress, fear-anything at all.

Let's consider a Biblical example.

Solomon loved God with all his heart, for a while. Then, he allowed his women to turn his heart away from God. How? Solomon allowed his foreign women who did not love the Lord Jehovah, the God of his father David, to erect idols to foreign gods (note the little 'g'). As a result, he lost 10 of the 12 tribes of Israel. Rightfully so, the elders would not allow the perversion or mixing of truth and lies to take place. There is only one true God to be worshiped. They knew that allowing idols would invite demons. In fact, Paul tells us that the sacrifices were even made to demons:

But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils" (I Cor. 10:20).

One could say, Solomon traded in his kingdom for sex. It was the foreign women that led him into it, the women he had become intimate with against the will of the Lord. Solomon's story stands as a perfect example of a country perverted by mixing foreigners with locals-the two standards are unequal; the belief systems are unequal; they are unequally yoked. Solomon committed spiritual adultery, which is what the push for homosexuality is, too. One sin is enough to drag you to hell. It only takes one.

By the way, if you think allowing foreigners in will fix our economic woes, think again. Shall we take the best of both worlds like Richard had thought before his life was totally destroyed? I don't think so. Look at the border wars going on. Do you want that here? It is already here. Take a look at El Paso and Laredo and McAllen, Texas. Look at the two hour siestas in the afternoon. Is going home in the afternoon and sleeping really what Americans want? Sure, that will fix our economic woes right away. Stay up all night drinking and carousing and then go home and sleep in the afternoon for a couple of hours. Just completely close down the entire country so drunkards and whoremongers can go home and sleep.

2 Corinthians 6:14

New International Version (©1984)
Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?

New Living Translation (©2007)
Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can righteousness be a partner with wickedness? How can light live with darkness?

English Standard Version (©2001)
Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness?

New American Standard Bible (©1995)
Do not be bound together with unbelievers; for what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness?

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

International Standard Version (©2008)
Stop becoming unevenly yoked with unbelievers. What partnership can righteousness have with lawlessness? What fellowship can light have with darkness?

Aramaic Bible in Plain English (©2010)
Do not be associates with those who are unbelievers; for what partnership has righteousness with evil, or what intimacy has light with darkness?

GOD'S WORD® Translation (©1995)
Stop forming inappropriate relationships with unbelievers. Can right and wrong be partners? Can light have anything in common with darkness?

King James 2000 Bible (©2003)
Be you not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what partnership has light with darkness?

American King James Version
Be you not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion has light with darkness?

American Standard Version
Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness?

Douay-Rheims Bible
Bear not the yoke with unbelievers. For what participation hath justice with injustice? Or what fellowship hath light with darkness?

Darby Bible Translation
Be not diversely yoked with unbelievers; for what participation is there between righteousness and lawlessness? or what fellowship of light with darkness?

English Revised Version
Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness?

Webster's Bible Translation
Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

Weymouth New Testament
Do not come into close association with unbelievers, like oxen yoked with asses. For what is there in common between righteousness and lawlessness? Or what partnership has light with darkness?

World English Bible
Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness?

Young's Literal Translation
Become not yoked with others -- unbelievers, for what partaking is there to righteousness and lawlessness?

Again, the confession is always the first thing activists want young kids to make. They want the young person to confess being homosexual. Why? It seals things.

“It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken." With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak” (II Cor. 4:13).

People say what they believe, and then they believe what they say. On top of that, if they are praised for “coming out,” then how much more will the simple, weak, feeble-minded want to confess so as to be accepted and lauded. Such was the case on an Oprah show. A married lady abandoned her husband and children who sat by on national TV, crying, embarrassed, and befuddled as their mother was praised by Oprah and called courageous for abandoning her family.

Let’s translate that: an overweight woman with no ability to control her eating (no self control), who has never been married, and has no idea of what raising children means praises another woman for abandoning her husband and her children in order to go root with another female. To me, that is about the equivalent of cutting off one’s penis and testacles and being called healthy and normal by psychologists and health care professionals.

Case 4

This case is interesting because it involves a lady who became spiritually prideful, so much so that she backslid and bought into the idea of the New Age. She felt an "injustice from a member of the Church." She stopped going to church and felt betrayed because God had let the church member hurt her. She realized that she had gifts called "psychic abilities" and could see spirits, and hear them communicate to her. Eventually she met others with the same abilities and they showed her what they termed other faces of "god" (note the small "g").

She says, "I was taught that "god" is within man and therefore man can and must make himself perfect and powerful like "god."

[Notice how this is related to right and wrong and thereby relates directly to the law, which is what we are up against with the homosexual debate.]

"Whatever one does is okay; even if is considered unlawful or unacceptable to man, socially, politically, and even morally. I was made to believe that there is a problem with people who do not understand these 'precepts' and this was because they are not yet highly evolved compared to those in the New Age"(Syquia, 2006, p. 56).

Evolved here is the center of this type of seduction. Richard felt he was evolving and there was a place wherein he could obtain the knowledge and completeness of both male and female. Obama said that his view on marriage has evolved. Oprah called homosexuality evolved on one of her episodes. This is an angle of attack we need to be aware of. Like the lady here, people with these ideas are living under a delusion of superiority. Because they feel superior, they most often take a position whereby they try to teach or lead others. But, that is the blind*ed* leading the blind, please pardon the play on the cliché. They will feel specifically empathetic toward things, living or non, which should automatically be less important than family and morality. This is why we see people so concerned about the environment but still believe abortion is perfectly acceptable. In fact, Obama is the perfect example. His new healthcare bill has people paying for abortion left, right, and center, but he acts concerned about the environment. A woman can go to the doctor and murder her baby, and it's perfectly legal. Kill a puppy and go to prison for five years. Now you understand the reason their moral compass is upside down: demonic influence. I have to say it-and this is the leader of the free world?

The lady relates "To make a long story short, I became a New Ager. I talked about energies in nature and in men. I even once prayed to the moon to ask for something I desired…I thought I had found the truth and that "god" had revealed these secret truths to me about the world since I was one of the "highly evolved" ones. But a voice inside me was telling me something was not right. I was always depressed. I even told the Lord to end my life because I could no longer find purpose in it" (Syquia, 2006, p. 57).

We have several motifs here to watch very closely. These are characteristics of the twisted logic that earmark prideful thinking. We must highlight these now to guide our dealings with people later. At first glance, people with this type of logic appear very sound, but, on closer scrutiny, their logic falls apart, and we see how dangerous they really are, especially around our own family.

First, during this period in her life, she does not deny the existence of God. Even more surprisingly, she admits still praying to God while she also prayed to the moon. At the very least, she has engaged in some form of idolatry. Now that God has been removed from His rightful place in her life, there is no touchtone by which to guide herself. Therefore, she has relegated herself to the position where she herself lifts herself up. This is the evolution-the evolving ever upward. She has brought God and the moon to the same level, at least where she prays to both and also raised herself up in the process where she has special knowledge.

Second, she never felt comfortable. In fact, she never could. As we saw, Richard went through this exact same feeling of lacking. This is the self-contradiction that homosexuals face: they claim to have specific knowledge but still feel unfulfilled. The activists have really tried to capitalize off of the recent deaths of several homosexuals, claiming that homosexual suicide is a result of not being accepted. That is blatantly false. Yes, we mourn the death of any individual because he is a human being and our hearts go out to his loved ones. But, the Bible tells us that the wages of sin is death. Until that time, spiritual death occurs, and people feel something as a result. The lady in this case had tasted the sweet savor of forgiveness in her life, and, when she fell away, her spirit became troubled. The Holy Spirit began to deal with her, and it made her feel uneasy.

She said that: "But a voice inside me was telling me something was not right. I was always depressed."

The depression is a natural result of her falling away. Sin brings a potpourri of feelings, from ecstasy to mere pleasure to pain to sheer hell on earth. These are natural stop gaps that are each a blessing the worse they get because they remind us that we are veering off course. Nothing can ever take away that depression. Perhaps chemical alteration may delay the effects or going out for a while may get the mind on something else, but things will never get better. Never. For those who have bought into the slogan "It gets better," you are wrong. The delusion gets bigger. The hole gets deeper. The feelings become more scarred and more seared to where there is no feeling. That is the only way people with this logic throw healthy nine-month old babies in the trash bin or spread the placenta on their faces and then feel more pity for a stray cat.

The story here is a wonderful testament to the healing power of the Holy Spirit, and healing is the definite requirement. I'll let her tell it in her own words.

"Then, the Lord introduced me to new friends. I met a priest who seemed to understand…I asked him to pray over me for healing….He placed his hands on top of my head and started praying spontaneously. I cried instantly and suddenly felt a very warm sensation on my face that turned really hot, as if something was burning very close to my face….I opened my eyes and knew in my heart that the Lord had healed not my physical eyes, but the eyes of my soul" (Syquia, 2006, 58).

The state that she had fallen into is referred to as spiritual blindness. These are people who are so puffed up in their own minds and hearts that they know one little fact and blow it up to discuss the mysteries of the universe. They will nothing of God or anything you have to say regarding their disposition with God. I mentioned before a Brit I worked with some time ago who was just the same. He accepted Jesus and was healed on his deathbed. Later, he renounced Jesus and swore he healed himself through positive thinking. He claimed he had evolved past the superstition of believing in God. When anyone would say any Biblical fact at all to him, he would cut them off and counter with a fact, such as the Red Sea never actually existed in the Old Testament of the Bible because the real name is the Sea of Reeds. Therefore, he concludes the whole story of Moses is fabricated. He was too smart for his own good, and now he is still miserable. He became impotent, which is very fitting as he is married to a much younger woman and he is also very jealous. God is not mocked.

Case 5

Before moving on, I need to mention a point of caution. The devil always looks for a weak point in us to attack. With case 4, it was her spiritual pride. She then was vulnerable to stoking her pride. That is why she fell for the myth of being evolved; it set her above other people. She had the ability afterward to pinpoint the point of entry but most people can't. Accordingly, we need to consistently take stock of ourselves so that we do not become vulnerable and fall prey similarly. If you are dealing with homosexuality in your house or the deception of accept all, then take a look at things in your home and in your family. You might be the only one who sees the weakness, but, thank God, you do. The weakness in many homes is the parents' inability to say no to their children. Consequently, a 15 year old boy might be slipping into darkness with full support from his parents, for instance. There could be adultery, drunkenness, unconfessed abortions, drug use, or contact with spirits. To fight an effective war against the powers of darkness, you have to remove these from your house. Repent, plead THE BLOOD OF JESUS, and get busy ridding your house of anything that stands between you and your savior Jesus Christ.

In this case, the exorcist was Father Syquia, the author of the book Exorcism: Encounters with the Paranormal and the Occult. I included this book to give you an idea of what type of powers that you are up against. It is paramount that we understand that we are usually not up against just one demon. Richard was possessed by numerous demons, and therefore they were much stronger as opposed to just one. My intention here is to provide you with an adequate information to fight a successful war and protect your family, not write a book on demon possession. We have a very specific aim with this information.

Father Syquia was visited by a man and his daughter who was vexed by demons. Father Syquia interviewed the young lady and just before she was to leave, she asked Father Syquia to bless some water that she had brought along. As the Father began, the Father heard an alien like voice from the girl saying “Stop!” It yelled again, “Stop that!”

The Father says, “This was the first time in my life that a demon had spoken directly to me.” He continued trying to pray for the girl. “The entity at the same time started to mockingly laugh, voicing out the chilling words, Is that the best you can do? Priest? You cannot get rid of me! I can stay here all afternoon!...Why do you do this priest? Go back to your mansion! You cannot be happy doing this! You are a rich man!”

This warrants record because Father Syquia writes “It knew my background” in the very next line (Syquia, 2006, 99-101). Demons know the people they oppress (harass) and definitely who their enemies are, such as the Priest. Connected to that, this particular demon knew that Father Syquia was afraid, and it was very defiant. The resistance continued with the demon screaming with ‘fear’ and ‘pain’[author’s words], “She is mine! She is mine! I will never leave!”

Father Syquia began to tire and tried to maintain his focus. He describes how demons can put images in one’s mind (obsession) to distract him from casting them out. He then sensed what he calls a renewed vigor and power from the demonic entity when he heard the demon and its reinforcements claiming “She is ours! She is ours! We will never leave!”

At this point, we see that the demon has shifted from saying mine to ours. Father Syquia relates that the rule exists to seal a place when performing an exorcism in order to prevent other demons from giving support. This he had failed to do and was now fighting additional powers. Here is the pivotal point in the battle:

“Suddenly an inspiration hit me….This young woman must herself enter into the battle and tell God that she chooses Him and not the demon![The possessed] must choose God with as much passion as he can muster. This would then release any ‘right’ the devil has over that person” (Syquia, 2006, p. 103-106).

Father Syquia put the crucifix in her hand and told her to say “Jesus. I love you,” which she did after much difficulty. The demon tried to prevent her but once she blurted it out, she repeated it over and over. She was free at last.

During the exorcism-pay specific attention-Father Syquia was attacked in his mind by a bombardment of images. Here is how he describes it:

“By this time, I could sense my energies were being depleted due to the intensity of the emotional, psychological, and spiritual struggle. I had to keep my focus on commanding with faith and authority as well as deflecting the emotional fears and anxieties that the demon was sending my way. We must keep in mind that when one is a beginner in spiritual warfare, he must have the discipline to control his mind and thoughts and remain focused since the devil can harass us with obsessive thoughts during the encounter" (Syquia, 2006, 104).

This attack through a bombardment in the thought life is termed "obsession," and it is a form of attack. Carnal Christians are very susceptible to this attack. That's why we have to read the Word daily and fortify our mind. When one receives Jesus as his/her Lord and Savior, s/he instantly has a new spirit. God has given us His Spirit. That still leaves 2/3 of our totality to deal, which are the soul (our thoughts [mind], consciousness, desires, emotions, etc.) and the body. Quite naturally then, satan will attack us through our minds and have us to act on our thoughts through our bodies.

Even a Christian is susceptible. When a person gives his life over to Jesus, he will become a target, and a whole array of temptations will come his way. It is no coincidence. We have to change our friends. Our activities, our hangouts, and any single thing that could conflict with our new lives. Even a minor thought can take root and blossom into a mighty oak that seems impossible to root up. This is why people slide back into their old ways: they have failed to give up something and consequently straddle the fence. It can't be both ways. More importantly, we already saw that demons know people. They know families. They know what you like. They must be cut off at the source. That is easier said than done when they are invited into your school system…when they are courted by judges…given a special place by congressmen. But, remember, these people always come up for re-election. Laws can be overturned. Congressmen are our servants and not the other way around. They serve us. They do not rule us.

Congressmen-I'm talking to the real men-I urge you to write laws that necessitate the issue of same sex marriage be decided by popular vote: take it completely out of the hands of perverse, activist judges. Take away any possibility of being declared unconstitutional. We salute you who have been strong and proud enough to be counted as real men, real Americans, and not traitorous self-serving quislings. We salute you and honor you because you have stood against the aberration of homosexuality. Godspeed.

One final point from Syquia supports what we have already stated and have already seen in scripture from the New Testament author and Apostle Paul.

"A final point that should be stressed is the appearance of these spirits when they manifest themselves. They usually show themselves in different forms depending on the culture of the place and they appear almost always in the same form so that they may be recognized and given due reverence. Evils spirits can also manifest themselves in any form they desire according to the effect they want to produce, like fear or appeal. For those especially in the New Age, these spirits can appear as beautiful and handsome entities. This way people are attracted to them and are more open to them, taking them as guides and protectors. They may also appear as horrifying beings like beasts and reptiles to try to sow fear and anxiety" (Syquia, 2006, p. 180).

Part 4

Freedom from Deception

If we ground ourselves in the Word of God, we should not be deceived by platitudes and fantastic arguments. In order to avoid deception, we have steps to follow.

1. Be humble.

"Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble" (I Pet. 5:5).[

Remember what we just looked at, the cases we just read, and ponder them, their beginnings and their ends. Arrogance is one of the worst culprits and lifts its head against God; it justifies unjustifiable behavior to continue in sin.

2. Love God's Truth

"[9] The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with how Satan works. He will use all sorts of displays of power through signs and wonders that serve the lie, [10] and all the ways that wickedness deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. [11] For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie [12] and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness" (2 Thes. 2: 9-12).

3. Have Fear of God (fear = honor)

"Come, my children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD. [12] Whoever of you loves life and desires to see many good days, [13] keep your tongue from evil and your lips from telling lies. [14] Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it" (Ps. 34: 11-14).

4. Make Jesus the the only thing you know-the test of everything

"And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the testimony of God. [2] For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. [3] I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. [4] And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, [5] that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God" (I Cor. 2: 1-5).

Know that signs follow Christians; Christians don't follow signs. This is specifically important when choosing leaders. How could you vote for someone who practices abortion, pushes it on people, and promotes homosexuality. It does not matter if he hands out 1000 dollar bills and gives away free houses. If it is at the expense of our children, that is a deal you can never afford to make. Will you trade your child in for a free house? Will you let someone sodomize your child or stick a needle in his head for a free house? Of course not. The ones who vote for these evildoers have already consented to the trade off though. If you are one of those people, you can turn things around. It is not too late.

"[17] Sanctify them by Your truth. Your Word is truth" (Jn. 17:17).

This is the only we are sanctified-by the Word. Jesus is the Word of God incarnate or made flesh (Jn. 1:14). Therefore, it is incumbent to center all of our decisions and ideas on Him…the Word.

"How can a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed according to Your Word" (Ps. 119:9).

It is time to plead the blood over your family. Forget about forging ties with people who will never change and are therefore perverting the church. Close ranks. Jesus came for the world, but you never saw Him laying hands on the Pharisees and trying to cleanse them. He knew His own people, and that came out of His own mouth.

"I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours" (Jn. 17:9).

He never compromised with the Pharisees, never tried to cut deals, never tried to form alliances with the enemy. Likewise, Paul never tried to form alliances with the Judaizers who introduced heresy into the midst of the congregation, claiming the only way to be saved (after Jesus had died and ascended) was to live by the old Judaic Law, which was completely opposite from the truth.

"Forever, O LORD, Your Word is settled in heaven" (Ps. 119:89).

We have the assurance to know the truth, rest in peace, and be safe from harm. Stand up. Do not cow in fear. Fear has no part of you.

"For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father" (Rom. 8:15).

If you are experiencing fear, you have to attack it. Bind it up, and cast it out. You are free from all of it…fear, anxiety, depression, and everything attached to sin.

"And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (Jn. 8:32).

Deliverance and Protection from satanic Power

Creflo Dollar said once that Christianity is like getting cable: all of this stuff just comes along with it. That is so true. It is not only the redemption but also the power and the healing and the peace and on and on and on.

If you take steps now to protect your children, God is right there with you.

"All your children shall be taught by the LORD, And great shall be the peace of your children" (Is. 54:13).

This is the function of the Holy Spirit; He is the great Teacher. Walking with Him is so important because we get answers from Him, consolation, warnings, encouragement, and everything we need for the moment. That includes protection.

"In righteousness you shall be established; You shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; And from terror, for it shall not come near you. Indeed they shall surely assemble, but not because of Me. Whoever assembles against you shall fall for your sake" (Is. 54:14-15).

It requires righteousness to be established in this. That certainly does not mean that you have never sinned at all, but it does mean that we must be living for God. If we fall, we get right back up, ask God for forgiveness, and get back into His righteousness. We never have a license to sin; we have a license to keep driving even though we get a violation. Jesus paid the ticket, and we have to get back into the safety zone and drive like it is all settled in court.

Problems will come; the beasts are at the gate, and they are waiting to attack. A colleague asked me if I would put my name on this book: Well, of course, I said. If I deny Jesus, He will deny me. I am happy to stand for Jesus Christ. I am not ashamed of the Word. God intervenes on our behalf-both to deliver us from temptation and to protect us when we stand up for what is right.

If it is temptation you face, whether to sin or to back down from this fight, call on God. He will not leave you helpless.

"No weapon formed against you shall prosper, And every tongue which rises against you in judgment, You shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, And their righteousness is from Me, Says the LORD" (Is. 54:17).

We saw in Mark 4:14 that the Sower sows the Word; this is exactly the type of Word (from God) that you need to be sowing. Say it out loud. God will take those words , which are His and create the fruit of your lips. Why? Because, He said He would and also because you are in agreement with Him. There is no safer place on earth than in agreement with God. Like Creflo Dollar said, All this stuff just comes with it.

It takes an act of resistance though if you are being hit with oppressive tactics. Visions, images, and stark fears all come to coerce us into doing something wrong or turn us away from doing something right. However, we are not subject to that. You have to get that Word in your mouth and use it as a weapon. That is why we call it a sword; it is an offensive weapon. How many knights have we ever seen on TV in a fight where they only used the sword in a defensive manner? How many armies go to war and then are told only hit back if they hit you first?

"Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you" James 4:7.

The power comes only after submission to Jesus. It can be no other way. If you go against satan unprepared, you will wish you had stayed home. Don't forget: we are standing in the might of Jesus, not our own power. Preparedness comes by knowing God's Word, becoming skillful with it, and that only comes after submission to Him as Lord of your life.

"Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world" (I John 4:4).

God created satan; satan is a created being. Therefore, why fear the created more than the Creator? God is supernatural; satan is preternatural. God is the strongest of any being; we have power over satan if and only if and when we stand in the power of Jesus through the blood of Jesus Christ. Jesus actually gave us that power. It is His gift to us through His shed blood.

"Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy and nothing shall by any means hurt you" (Luke 10:19).

You have been liberated. Maybe your family is still experiencing problems, but they can be set free through you. It only takes one believer to change the destiny of an entire family. God sent Jesus for that very purpose: to liberate us, to liberate you, to liberate your family. But, it is not a free pass; again, it is not a license to sin.

18 "All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: 19 that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. 20 We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. 21 God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God"(II Cor. 5:18-21).

But there is a separation that has taken place, and Jesus is there to repair the breach.

"Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear. But your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He will not hear" (Is. 59: 1-2).

See, it is the sin, the iniquity, that separated us from God. And we also see that if we accept Him, then continue to sin, things could get much worse. Let's look at that scripture in several versions so that we can fully understand it, especially if we hear someone claim that homosexuality is ok, and that homosexuals who never repent, anyone for that matter, should be allowed in the church. We have already seen that we are called to withdraw from them, not to even eat with them. What if there were adultery in the church, for instance, and the couples had an affair while still married, split, and then sat in the pew with their previous spouses looking on. That is unacceptable. The whole place would be chaos…a literal den of iniquity. We must cast them out. God said that. Refer back to part 1 for clarity if need be.

Hebrews 10:26

New International Version
If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left,

New Living Translation
Dear friends, if we deliberately continue sinning after we have received knowledge of the truth, there is no longer any sacrifice that will cover these sins.

English Standard Version
For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

New American Standard Bible
For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

King James Bible (Cambridge Ed.)
For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

International Standard Version
For if we choose to go on sinning after we learned the full truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

Remember, do not get embroiled in vane arguments, senseless disputations. It is ridiculous that something like homosexual marriage should even come up within the church. What idiocy it is to entertain such ideas! That is a ploy by satan himself. Democracy is sometimes an evil tool when in the hands of idiots, whoremongers, and perverts. The majority of people are unreliable and ignorant of the Word, so how can they make decisions like these? Even a Ph.D. or a Th.D. or an Ed.D. still cannot refute what the Bible says about homosexuality. Plain and simple. No amount of conjecture or commentary can ever change that. This is why tradition has stood the test of time…recorded history of 7000 years is not wrong. The societies that approved and practiced that have been relegated to dust in the wind or beggars to the rest of the world. Yes, this is their heritage.

“Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices” (II Cor. 2:11).

Look at the methods and common denominators that give a clue of what the trick might be. As we see, here it is freedom just as it is with abortion. Then, look at the players involved. That will be the next clue as to who to believe, where to put your trust. They wear different faces than their own to hide the truth. The word “Christian” is no longer enough to convince us of anyone’s true nature; we must search it out. George Tiller the abortionist, the baby killing machine responsible for an estimated 60,000 murders, was an usher at the Reformation Lutheran Church in Wichita. Consider the mindset of that congregation who would claim to be Christians. What real Christian would accept a murderer like Tiller that would leave a room with innocent blood on his hands after murdering a child and then go to church and collect the offering?

“Therefore by their fruits you shall know them” (Matthew 7:20).

The black so-called ministers who have supported Obama, who himself openly supports homosexuality and the slaughter of our unborn, have rejected the teachings of Jesus in favor of choosing a leader simply for the color of his skin. This is their fruit. This is how we know what they really stand for and where their hearts really are.

Part 5

How Demons Enter

This section is vital because we can see the areas we must monitor in ourselves and recognize them in our enemy.

1. Lack of the Word

43 "When an evil spirit comes out of a man, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. 44 Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. 45 Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that man is worse than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation" (Mt. 12: 43-45).

The man does have the Word (Jesus) so it is unoccupied. When we accept Jesus, remember, we have a new spirit, the Spirit of God comes to dwell in us. Without Him, we are empty. No wonder people always say they feel empty; they do not have Jesus, the Word, realized by the Holy Spirit, living within them. As a consequence, a demon will return because they always seek a dwelling place. If Jesus is not there, it returns with seven other stronger demons. So, can a man lose his salvation? Certainly. Once saved, always saved is heresy. Can he lead a double life and be in the church and commit lewd acts? Certainly. One black gospel singer commented that the choir is a homosexual hangout. And, people look the other way. These people are planted in our midst by satan himself in order to corrupt the good seed. The more we tolerate their presence, the more they pervert our children.

"and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels" (Matthew 13:39).

2. Unforgiveness

29 "His fellow servant fell to his knees and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay it back.'

30 "But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt. 31 When the other servants saw what had happened, they were outraged and went and told their master everything that had happened.

32 Then the master called the servant in. 'You wicked servant,' he said, 'I canceled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. 33 Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?'

[34] In anger his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed. [35] "This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart" (Mt. 18:34-35).

The unforgiving servant refused to forgive someone else, after he himself had been forgiven, which resulted in being turned over. Does that phrase "turned over" ring any bells? It should. Yet, let's not confuse forgiveness with acceptance. Again, that key phrase, that banner that reads acceptance under which the very demons of hell have taken refuge, reverberates and announces the onslaught of demonic presence. It is their trumpet warning the dear saints to stand guard because a battle looms. Therefore, take heed.

The entry point for demons exists because unforgiveness has now made a weak spot. God Himself leaves the place of iniquity. It can become a stronghold in the person for demonic activity. Man can flip between visiting good places and evil place, but the Holy Spirit and demonic spirits cannot take up residence in the same dwelling.

3. Carnal Mind

"[6] The mind governed by the flesh is death, but the mind governed by the Spirit is life and peace" (Romans 8:6).

Like #2 above, the Holy Spirit will not dwell in iniquity. The dwelling becomes empty then, and demons have a place to enter and thereby reside (see #1 above).

4. Profane Babbling

[16] Avoid godless chatter, because those who indulge in it will become more and more ungodly" (II Tim. 2:16).

A little profane talk leads to a little nasty talk and that leads to a suggestion and that takes one to action and then it develops into a routing and ultimately ends in a lifestyle. It does not take long, just as one cigarette leads to a pack within a matter of weeks. One is feeding the flesh, and that takes priority after a while.

5. Bitterness

"[15] [L]ooking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled" (Heb. 12: 15).

In my opinion, bitterness is an extension of unforgiveness. It burns like acid, and people start to plot and connive. A whole territory can be defiled when embittered people gather together because the double dealing and back stabbing that go on cause divisions and strife. Bitterness can manifest itself in so many ways that we could write another chapter on the subject. This is a common place for people to strategize together, to act in unison to accomplish revenge and destroy their opposition. The homosexual activists are a prime example of bitterness in action.

Further, if one inspects the reason why homosexuals want to marry, he might realize it is more than the reason to be together. It is even more than legitimating the relationship.

Of course, if homosexuals have state legitimacy to marry, then they feel justified in their impropriety. But, for homosexuals, the icing on the cake is this: if they marry with state approval, they feel they can authentically shift the blame for all of their licentiousness back onto everyone who has ever stood in opposition to their aberrant and deviant lifestyle. Moreover, they think then they will have the ability to look back as truly persecuted groups do and claim, Free at last, Free at last!

That is, my dear friends, bitterness in action and a product of demonic strongholds.

It is a result of blaming the whole world for one's own personal failures, terrible decisions, and inability to control oneself. Mark my words, then, the fingers point at the true believers and those who never backed down from God's Word. I welcome that. You should too. The simple fact is: it doesn't matter if a million people say otherwise: right is right, and wrong is wrong. Either you know the truth or you don't.

I shall never accept blame for someone else's sin. I shall never support it. If you do, you will suffer the consequences. I shall never pity those who had the chance to turn away but pay the price for their insolence and blasphemy.

6. Occult

"[9] When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate the detestable ways of the nations there. [10] Let no one be found among you who sacrifices their son or daughter in the fire, who practices divination or sorcery, interprets omens, engages in witchcraft, [11] or casts spells, or who is a medium or spiritist or who consults the dead. [12] Anyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD; because of these same detestable practices the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you. [13] You must be blameless before the LORD your God" (Deut. 18: 9-13).

We see that the result of occult practices is the loss of a nation: God said He will "drive out those nations…." The country already sacrifices its sons and daughters through abortion. This is a direct entry point for demonic activity. We saw how demons plagued one family for five generations as a result, causing physical sickness and mental disturbances. One family member can doom or save an entire family line. People perish out of ignorance. God said that about His own people, so consider the end of practicing atheists, perverts, and occultists.

7. Rebellion

"For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry…." (I Sam.

15:23).

Rebellion is the same as divination or practicing the occult. Imagine that. Actually, we already established that in the very first part of this book. This is how blasphemy takes place in part as well as how people become "turned over" as seen in Romans ch. 1. Mike Murdock says "Delayed obedience is disobedience." That is so true.

8. Confession

"The wicked is ensnared by the transgression of his lips, But the righteous will come through trouble" (Proverbs 12:13).

We had looked at this earlier when we saw that God creates the fruit of our lips and when we looked at how activists want the children to speak it out at the very beginning that they are gay, which is actually a misnomer. Why speak it? It ensnares them. It captures them. Then, the scripture comes true: I believe therefore I speak (II Cor. 4:13) which also turns into I speak and therefore I believe.

Part 6

Types of Demons

This is just touching on the subject here because I am writing this for a specific audience fighting a specific enemy. So, be on the lookout for the enemy and the type of situation you are facing. This is the scripture that traditionally defines blasphemy, which we have looked at before. Jesus was accused of casting out demons by having the power of demons to which he answered:

Jesus said, "[25] And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. [26] And if Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. [27] No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house' (Mark 3:25-27).

The strong man here to whom Jesus refers is the demon in charge of the possession. So, Jesus reasons, why would the strongest demon cast out other demons when being in possession is the chief aim anyway. The inference is that only one stronger than the demon in charge can cast him out, and, as we can see, that was and still is Jesus (the same yesterday, today, and forever).

For our purposes here, we need to determine what demons we are actually pitted against, especially because we are going into war. We must therefore know our enemy. Most often, homosexuals will have more than one demon, so we need to see how they operate together.

1. Lying (chief demon)

 Minor demons

 a. Adultery
 b. Sodomy
 c. Homosexuality
 d. Religion

"Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem: They commit adultery and walk in lies; They also strengthen the hands of evildoers, So that no one turns back from his wickedness. All of them are like Sodom to Me, And her inhabitants like Gomorrah" (Jer. 23: 14).

These are prophets, supposed men of God but actually hypocrites, who with the strong man or chief demon of lying also rules lesser demons of adultery, sodomy, homosexuality, and they have the means to strengthen other evildoers (think of your congressmen who pass laws for gay marriage). It all dovetails together because most homosexuals will say the Bible says nothing about it, which we have proven false. That is the spirit of lying supporting and ruling the spirit of homosexuality. They often twist the Word, which is a perversion. Pervert means to twist. They commit adultery physically and spiritually. The spiritual adultery causes them to commit physical adultery. This is also true with heterosexuals.

Let's make the connection between the lie and being turned over to a reprobate or debased mind.

[16] "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. [17] For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, 'The just shall live by faith' " (Rom. 1:17).

Simply put, the faith here is the Word of the Lord . So, we are to live by the Word of the Lord, according to his statutes.

[25] "who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. [26] For this reason God gave them up to vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. [27] Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due" (Rom. 1:25-27).

The exchange of the truth of God is exchanging the spirit of truth –the Holy Spirit- for the lie – the demon of lying. We know that satan is the father of all lies. As a result, God gave them over to the lie and then to the lesser demons of homosexuality in all its forms v. 26 and v. 27 i.e., lesbianism and sodomy etc….

"And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting" (Rom. 1:28).

Again, we see that God will not inhabit a dwelling where there is darkness Light and dark cannot co exist in the same location.

2. Perversion (chief demon)

 Minor demons

 a. Hate
 b. Lust
 c. Doctrinal Error

"For their heart devises violence, And their lips talk of troublemaking" (Proverbs 24:2).

"The LORD has mingled a perverse spirit in her midst; And they have caused Egypt to err in all her work, As a drunken man staggers in his vomit" (Is. 19:14).

The perverse spirit caused the error in thinking and that reflects in doctrine. So, the perverse spirit controls the doctrinal heresy; this is why we see the rise in homosexual churches and a tributary of sympathizers in the congregations. Cases in point are the Presbyterian church and the scores of Unitarian churches, which promulgate heresy anyway with the denial of Jesus as Lord.

"and said, "O full of all deceit and all fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of the Lord?" (Acts 13:10).

Fraud and deceit are children of lying and perversion. They are like a family that works in tandem units, any one of which can be seen at any place where homosexuality is welcome.

Some final comments are warranted here about demonic oppression, obsession, and possession. The demons listed in this part of the book are just a very small number compared to the totality, and I included them because they relate the most to our topic of seducing spirits. Look for combinations that are cooperating together. When you are pro-active in your home in binding and loosing and fighting the very spirits of darkness, keep in mind which chief demons (called the strong man) control which minor demons. Then, bind the strong man, and the foot soldiers will be forced to flee. Cut off the head. Do not waste all your time and energy cutting off tails. Tails grow back.

Also, whether you fight a demonic temptation through obsessive images that come to taunt you to act or when you are stand in the gap for someone else, you still have the same power. God will not answer your prayers if you regard iniquity in your heart, but he will hear you cry out right in the middle of the worst temptation that you have ever had. The key is to be truly contrite, truly humble, truly subservient to Him. He will take it from there. Jesus is your advocate. Without full submission to Him, you are fighting a losing battle. What is at stake? Your soul. The souls of your children. Some parting thoughts are in order.

Conclusion

My dear readers, the future is at stake. I know why people hate America. They think we are a nation of perverts and freaks. If things continue unabated, your children will be watching pictures of men kissing, and in Massachusetts they already are, in the classroom, even elementary school.

When I first decided to write this book, I compiled hundreds of pages of incidents of people fighting against the perversion of their kids. I wanted to include all of that but decided that the book would be dismissed as political and readers would disregard it. So, I am saying it here now instead.

Because homosexual marriage is now legal, parents in those states cannot complain about homosexual pictures in their classroom, including kissing etc. Homosexual teachers openly talk about the type of sex they perform at home. (Heterosexuals would be fired if they mentioned something like that; what hypocrisy !) Pamphlets have been handed out with specific pictures and instruction on how to have anal sex.

My final question is this, parents: what would you say if a teacher talked to your daughter about giving oral sex to boys? Why then is it ok for them to talk about these things in a homosexual context?

Congressmen, get busy.

Parents, never give in and never give up.

Works Consulted

1. Camenker, Brian (2008). What same-sex "marriage" has done to Massachusetts
2. Koch, Kurt E. (1971). The devil's alphabet. Grand Rapids, Michigan: Kregel Publications.
3. Koch, Kurt E. (1971). Between Christ and satan. Grand Rapids, Michigan: Kregel Publications.
4. Martin, Malachi (1976). Hostage to the devil: the possession and exorcism of five living Americans. New York, New York: Reader's Digest Press.
5. Newport, Frank (2011, June 3). More Than 9 in 10 Americans Continue to Believe in God. Retrieved from http://www.gallup.com/poll/147887/americans-continue-believe-god.aspx

6. Syquia, Jose (2006), Exorcism: encounters with the paranormal and the occult. Quezon City, Philippines: Shepherd's Voice Publications. Inc.

Seducing Spirits: Homosexualizing America by Timothy Avants

Seducing Spirits: Homosexualizing America by Timothy Avants